COOLIDGE PUTS TAX CUT FIRST

GRAVE DUG FOR DEMOCRAT GAPS FOR 3D PARTY

Liberalization Seen for Fight in 1928.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.

What effect the Coolidge landslide will have on the future of political parties of the United States is the subject of speculation among politicians everywhere.

The full extent of the Coolidge sweep is not fully comprehended by the political experts, if not by the public at large. The President won less than 57 of the 531 electoral votes when additional returns last night placed North Dakota to his credit.

New Mexico is still in doubt, and it is shown by the final returns to the electoral college will be 55, or a majority of 275 over Davis and La Follette combined.

Almost a Precedent.

That the Coolidge triumph both in the electoral and the popular vote is one of the two or three great victories in United States presidential election history is apparent. The President made a clean sweep outside of the solid south from the Atlantic to the Pacific oceans with the exception of Wisconsin, the home state of Senator La Follette, carrying with the tide the home states of John W. Davis, Brother Charles Bryan, and Senator Wheeler, La Follette's running mate.

The early complete returns showing that Coolidge won a majority of the electoral as well as the popular vote, have furnished the politicians.

Voters' Mandate is Clear.

There is no disputing the mandate given him by the American people, 5,000,000 or more out of the 30,000,000 vote cast being for the President, compared with 4,000,000 for Davis and 1,000,000 for La Follette. The popular vote and the plurality of Coolidge were the largest in history, while his popular majority over both his opponents was nearly as large as Harding's plurality over Cox.

The showing made by the three parties in the election is regarded by the politicians as significant of the future of the great political organizations.

The Republican party has maintained and strengthened its position as the conservative party. It has been awarded a vote of confidence by the people in preference not only to the radical party led by La Follette but to the liberal conservative party led by John W. Davis.

Danger in Reaction.

Whether the Republican party can maintain itself in power beyond the next four years now depends on numerous considerations, but it is safe to say that its greatest danger will be the possibility of becoming too reactionary.

President Coolidge now faces his greatest test in public office. He has been tried for fifteen months as the boy of the year, and he has found favor in the eyes of the people. He was only measurably successful as a Republican leader in dealing with congress in regard to legislation.

In the new congress, however, he will have stronger party support, and it is safe to say that through progressive legislation the Republican party will be entrenched in its position in 1925.

Democrats Still Alive.

That the Democratic party still lives in the conclusion of the politicians concerning the returns. They were fully aware of the notes of the La Follette candidacy to find the party of reform and "act" in looking on its last legs after the counting of the votes in the electoral college. They had been led to believe that the third party had advanced the major portion of the Democratic party, would run second in the election, and would henceforth be considered the most important minority party.

On the contrary, the third party ran a poor third with less than half of the popular vote in the aggregate of the Democratic party and a negligible showing in the electoral vote. The Democratic party is found after all to be the chief minority party and the fate of the third party is in doubt.

Had the La Follette party run second in the popular vote and the electoral vote, the question raised would have been whether it would replace the Democratic party as the chief opposition of the Republican party in the next four years. In the light of the election result, however, the question is whether the third party will be absorbed by the Democratic party or will maintain its independence in 1928.

May Liberate Party.

A widespread opinion among Democratic leaders is that the Jeffersonian party must now become conspicuously liberal, if not radical, in order to attract votes.

52 STORY HOME FOR UNIVERSITY OF PITTSBURGH

Pittsburgh, Pa., Nov. 6.—Plans for the erection of a $10,000,000 fifty-two story building at the entrance to Schenley park to house a major part of the activities of the University of Pittsburgh were announced tonight by Chancellor John G. Bowman.

The new structure, to be known as "The Cathedral of Learning," will accommodate 12,000 students. Chancellor Bowman explained the details at a banquet of the trustees and faculty and a citizens' committee of 129 prominent business men.

The building will be Gothic in style, in white Kentucky limestone, and will stand upon a fourteen acre tract of land facing the park. It will be 380 feet long, 280 feet wide, and 480 feet high. It will have four entrances, sixteen high speed elevators, and class rooms, libraries, shops, and laboratories. Construction will begin next year.

The present buildings of the university, located in the Oakland district, near the site for the new structure, will be used to house the schools of dentistry and medicine.

RICH WOMAN IS SEIZED IN STORE

Col. F. R. Schwengel One of Her Bondsmen.

Mrs. Grace Wilson, believed to be a member of a wealthy family of Valparaiso, Ind., was released from the South Clark street station at midnight after being held for more than twelve hours.

Finally, at the insistence of Col. Frank R. Schwengel of the 123d field artillery and Thomas W. Balpe of 59 Bellevue place, the police booked her on a charge of shoplifting and bail was provided for her. She is believed to have been a victim of aphasia.

Mr. Balpe is president of the Lake-Side Preserving company and vice president of Austin Nichols & Co. He and Col. Schwengel signed her bond and she was released. Capt. Myron E. Adams, an associate of Col. A. A. Sprague, commissioner of public works, and defeated Democratic candidate for United States senator, also interested themselves in her behalf.

Arrested in Store.

Mrs. Wilson was arrested yesterday morning in Carson, Pirie, Scott & Co.'s store in Carson, Pirie, Scott & Co.'s store. She was attempting to steal a pair of shoes. She was charged with the theft of lingerie valued by the store at $85 when Harry McInnes, private detective employed to apprehend shoplifters, laid his hand on her arm.

"You'll have to come to the police station," McInnes said.

"Why—what have I done?" Mrs. Wilson asked. She appeared to be disoriented.

McInnes took her to the police station, where she was lodged in a cell. The names of Detective Sergeants Trent and Noonan were written on the lockup keeper's slip, but Mrs. Wilson was not formally booked. She was permitted to make a telephone call.

Colonel Appeals to Collins.

Within an hour after the call Col. Schwengel and Mr. Balpe communicated with the office of the chief of police. They were informed that it would be necessary for officials of the store to order Mrs. Wilson booked. Attempts were made to get in touch with store officials. After several hours Col. Schwengel succeeded in reaching McInnes at his home in Oak Park.

The store detectives agreed to have Mrs. Wilson booked on a charge of petty larceny and the bonds for her release were signed.

Mrs. Wilson gave her address to the police as 203 Washington street, Valparaiso, Ind.

LODGE STILL IN COMA; HOPE FOR RECOVERY SLIGHT

Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 7.—Little hope of the recovery of Senator Henry Cabot Lodge was held out this morning by physicians who have been in attendance at his bedside since he suffered a stroke at the Charles Gates hospital here Wednesday.

At 8 o'clock the attending physicians issued a bulletin stating that there had been "no change in Senator Lodge's condition." He was still unconscious, it was said, as he had been since he was stricken thirty-nine hours before.

Another bulletin, released about 6:30 last night, announced "no decided change during the day. Outlook most unfavorable." The bulletin was signed by Dr. John H. Cunningham and Dr. Frederick H. Winslow.

FREE TRADER GETS HIGH POST IN TORY CABINET

Churchill Will Run Exchequer.

BY JOHN STEELE.

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.] [Copyright, 1924, by The Chicago Tribune.] LONDON, Nov. 6.—Stanley Baldwin, Great Britain's new prime minister, waited on King George tonight and submitted to him a list of the new conservative cabinet members, which the king approved. Tomorrow morning the new ministers will attend the privy council at Buckingham palace, kiss the hand of the king on their appointment, and receive the seals of office.

The cabinet contains two great surprises. One is the inclusion of Winston Churchill in the great office of chancellor of the exchequer. The other is the absence of Sir Robert Horne, the former chancellor, who is Sir Baldwin's greatest rival for the leadership of the conservative party.

The appointment of Austen Chamberlain as foreign minister is hailed with approval from all sides. It is felt that he will maintain the foreign office tradition of continuity of policy, while avoiding the pin pricks and displays of temper which marred Lord Curzon's tenure of office. Mr. Chamberlain will also act as leader of the house of commons, thus carrying on the practice established by David Lloyd George of divorcing the house leadership from the prime ministry ship.

Current State Main Point.

Lord Curzon has been relegated to the ornamental sinecure of lord president of the council and leadership of the house of lords. Mr. Churchill's appointment was sensational and is taken as a bid from Mr. Baldwin to the Lloyd George wing of the Liberals to join up with them instead of waiting for the inevitable absorption. These Liberals are all free traders, and the presence of Mr. Churchill, who is a free trader of deep seated sincerity, will be a guarantee that no budget ever remotely establishing protection will be introduced. The presence of Mr. Churchill, who is also an avowed anti-Bolshevik, will probably mean curbing for the proposed loan to Russia.

Lord Birkenhead goes to the India office, and this also is a popular appointment and indicates a progressive policy towards India.

Lansley Sir Robert Horne.

Lord Cave resumes the lord chancellorship, which he held in the last Conservative administration, while Sir William Jowson-Hicks, hard working politician, gets the admiralty, and L. C. M. S. Amery, who was at the admiralty before, gets the colonial office.

The insult to Sir Robert Horne by Mr. Baldwin has caused a first class political sensation and it may have far reaching results. Sir Robert, who is a Scotch lawyer, is by far the most able and influential member of the Conservative party, not excepting Mr. Baldwin himself. He was chancellor of the exchequer in 1921-22, but refused the reappointment then because he had offers from a business firm in the city of London which meant an income to him of $50,000 ($50,000) yearly, and he felt he could not afford to refuse this. It was taken as a foregone conclusion that he would be asked to come back as chancellor of the exchequer in the Baldwin cabinet and he was willing to make a sacrifice of $15,000 ($15,000) a year for this important office.

Is Offered Minor Post.

When Mr. Baldwin went for him yesterday, Sir Robert was astonished when the chancellorship was not even mentioned, and he was offered the minor post of minister of labor. He at once refused, and Mr. Baldwin made the vast mistake pointed by offering it immediately to Sir Arthur Steel-Maitland, a second rate politician, whom none expected to get more than an under secretaryship. Sir Arthur, of course, accepted and it is thus advertised to the party that Mr. Baldwin considers him in the same rank as Sir Robert.

It is stated tonight that the opening of parliament will be postponed to Nov. 13 to Dec. 3 in order to give the new ministers an opportunity to work on speeches and lines of policy.

School Costs to Be Cut; Not Teachers' Pay

Facing a deficit of more than $15,000,000 at the end of this year, members of the board of education and its staff, are preparing to tackle the annual budget, to reduce expenditures, without cutting teachers' salaries.

Unless expenses are curbed in the 1925 budget, the board will face a crisis in 1927 when the limit of its borrowing power will be reached.

At the present rate of revenue and expenditures for 1927, the board will face a deficit of $22,000,000. Should that occur, the board, which now only borrows on tax anticipation warrants to carry it through certain parts of each year, before the taxes are collected, would be forced to do long term borrowing, as does the city of Chicago, for other activities. That change of school board policy would add heavy interest charges to the school system's other burdens.

Faced with this situation, board members have resolved to retrench without making a horizontal cut in the salaries of the teaching staff which constitutes about 82 per cent of the expense of the educational fund in which the deficit occurs.

Will Avoid Salary Cuts.

President Charles M. McDowell of the board has given his assurances that there will not be any reduction of teachers' salaries.

While the situation is one that requires retrenchment of the school board's budget of a "wary cut," he said, "We cannot let the deficit continue from year to year. Some economy must be practiced in some of the special activities until we have a better basis for raising revenue."

"We feel that the efficiency of the teaching staff may be maintained by curtailing in other activities and keeping the salary schedule at the present level or even increasing it."

Could Remove the Deficit.

The board can ask the voters to grant by referendum an increase for educational purposes from $1.92 to $2.92 per $1 of collected taxes. Such an increase would eliminate the deficit in 1927 and give a surplus of more than $3,000,000 in 1928.

To ask the public to shoulder an additional tax burden, which would be likely if the schools demanded more out of the city's available revenue, would not be fair, the trustees say, until all other resources are at an end.

The teaching of special subjects may be curtailed or eliminated. Appropriation for such teaching was $194,000 in 1924, as against $194,000 in 1923. In 1924, as against $194,000 was spent in that 1927 only $145,000 was spent in that direction. It is pointed out that the teacher of a special subject often has as low as eight pupils in a class and receives more salary than teachers with classes of twenty to forty-four.

Another Probable Saving.

Curtailment in kindergarten work also will be considered. Kindergarten work cost $1,194,995 in 1924, against less than half that in 1917. The penny spent $195,700 this year, may be ended.

The board also is considering the plan of increasing the number of pupils per room by a small margin, which would result in a saving of more than $1,500,000.

The present staff would not be decreased, but fewer teachers would be taken into the system in the fall. In 1924 the number of teachers added to the staff to take care of the normal increase in attendance increased the pay rolls $1,235,000.

MELLON SEES PRESIDENT AND PREDICTS BOOM

Madden Has Plan for Refunds.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 6.—[Special.]—The Coolidge administration, backed by the overwhelming endorsement of the American people at the polls last Tuesday, began consideration today of the program that it will endeavor to carry into effect to meet the mandate of the people.

Tax reduction will be recommended by President Coolidge as the first move toward carrying out his economy program in accordance with the promises and pledges made during the campaign.

The President consulted informally today with Secretary of the Treasury Mellon and Representative Martin B. Madden (Rep., Ill.), chairman of the house appropriations committee, on matters affecting expenses and taxation.

No New Bill in Short Session.

While it was stated at the White House today that it was not so apparent whether the surplus would be large enough to warrant the President in recommending another radical reduction, or merely suggesting the repeal of certain phases of existing taxation, it was made clear that the question of reduction would be taken up in earnest by the next congress.

No new tax bill will be presented by the administration at the session of the present congress, which will convene on Monday, Dec. 1, but Representative Madden said he had prepared a bill for the regulation of surplus accumulation in the treasury, which he would submit to congress when it meets in December. This bill would take the form of a bill which would require the secretary of the treasury to report to the President whenever there is a surplus of $25,000,000 or more in the treasury at the end of the fiscal year.

Madden Plans Tax Refund.

Under the proposed plan the President would then direct the secretary of the treasury to turn this surplus back to the taxpayers in the form of reduction on the taxes for the current calendar year in which the fiscal year in question ended. Mr. Madden said he believed the best way to keep the government hard up.

That little in general legislation outside of enactment of the appropriation bills can be accomplished in the short session, which adjourns by constitutional prohibition on March 4, is apparent to the advisers of President Coolidge.

Against a Special Session.

One of them suggested that it might be wise to call congress into special session after March 4, when the Republican majority would be strong enough to sustain the President's recommendations. President Coolidge made it clear that he did not wish to call congress into an extraordinary session, both on account of the expense incident thereto and the belief on his part it would be better for the business of the country if it were free from agitation from March 4 until the following December.

President Coolidge has accepted the plan of taxation originally recommended by Secretary Mellon and it is known that he will recommend legislation for those plans.

Mellon Sees Prosperity Ahead.

Secretary Mellon sees prosperous business conditions ahead and a sound development of commerce and industry. It is understood he thinks an important factor is that the railroad will now feel free to go forward with their development plans to meet the growing commerce of the country.

Prosperous conditions will not only obtain in the United States but a growing improvement will be observed in Europe under the operation of the Dawes plan. Secretary Mellon believes Secretary Mellon in his annual report will suggest extension of the 60 per cent of the American debt funding commission, which expires in March. Treasury officials declare that the funding of the foreign debts to the United States cannot possibly be completed by March 4 and that it will be necessary to prolong the life of the commission. Congress no doubt will pass the necessary legislation during the short session.

Officials of the treasury said there would be no change of policy as a result of the election. Major programs already formulated will be continued. Officials of the treasury said there would be no change of policy as a result of the election. Major programs already formulated will be continued.

Would Return Half Funds.

the people under the general plan I have outlined in the bill I propose to introduce," he asserted.

Representative Madden said he thought that in the railroad administration department alone he could find a surplus of between $400,000,000 and $500,000,000.

Work on the treasury and postoffice appropriation bills will be started Monday, Mr. Madden said.

He declared he was opposed to increases in the second class postal rates because he believed the country should have the greatest possible freedom in the distribution of educational matters.

For Farm Commission. President Coolidge's message will not contain any definite suggestions for farmers' relief designed to place them on an equality with other producers. He is greatly interested, but feels that no sound program has been offered which does not lead to class legislation and paternalism. Because of this fact his message will be general in touching on the agricultural situation and will express the hope that the commission on agriculture, which he will name shortly, may be able to report something acceptable to congress.

It was also said in high official circles today that the President would recommend to the senate the adoption of the world court protocol. He is expected to recommend an increase in pay of postal employees, with new revenues to cover the additional expenditures, estimated at $135,000,000.

Madden Out for Speaker. Representative Madden today definitely announced that he would make the race for the speakership of the house.

Mr. Madden said he had not discussed the matter with any one as yet, but he expected to receive the aid of the same groups who offered him their support at the beginning of the present congress. At that time he refused to conduct an active campaign against Speaker Gillett.

Although several other names have been mentioned for the speakership, Madden is the first member of the house to say definitely that he would run. Most prominently mentioned among those who are expected to make a fight for the position is Nicholas Longworth of Ohio. Mr. Longworth was induced today by his delegation, but refused to comment.

WATER, WATER IN FOREST PARK; NOT A SINGLE BATH

Forest Park was in hot water last night.

For more than two hours it was impossible for residents of the western suburb to fill their bath tubs with anything but water so hot that baths could not be taken. There was no cold water.

Forest Park police, fire, and water departments were deluged with telephone calls from anxious citizens who wanted their baths. "It was explained that a fire had broken out in the Forest Park pumping station and that every gallon of water that issued therefrom was boiling hot."

Terry Druggan Leaves Coast for Jail Today

After two weeks of "stalling," Terry Druggan, who doesn't relish thoughts of the Cook county jail as a place of abode, will start today from San Francisco for Chicago in custody of United States Deputy Marshal John J. Doyle and Prohibition Agent Al Johnson.

The order of removal was issued late yesterday.

LATE RETURNS KEEP CONGRESS OUTLOOK SAME

Narrow G. O. P. Margin in Senate; House Safe.

BY ARTHUR CRAWFORD.

Belated congressional returns brought Senator Brookhart (Rep., Ia.) to the front as a probable winner and showed a number of changes in house contests. The Brookhart election increases the nominal Republican total in the senate by one, but does not change the senate status from an administration standpoint, inasmuch as Brookhart's Democratic opponent, Daniel F. Steck, could not have been counted upon to support Coolidge measures.

The house changes also do not affect the general situation in the lower branch of congress.

Revised figures show that the senate will be made up of fifty-five Republicans, assuming that the Brandegee vacancy is filled by a Republican; forty Democrats, and one Farmer-Labor member. Of the fifty-five Republicans only five are expected to follow the La Follette leadership on all propositions. Forty-nine is a majority of the senate.

House Margin of 33.

In the house unofficial returns indicate that the membership will include 246 Republicans, 184 Democrats, three Farmer-Labor members, and two Socialists. Two hundred and eighteen of the 246 Republicans failed to support President Coolidge for reelection, the regular Republicans total 234. The Democrats, together with the La Follette Republicans, the Farmer-Labor members, and the Socialists, total 201.

In a division of this character the regular Republicans would have a majority of thirty-three, or ample to control even if there were further defections.

Senator Magnus Johnson (Farmer-Labor, Minn.) conceded his defeat by Representative Schall (Rep.). The Schall plurality was in excess of 17,000.

Election of the two Republicans in Colorado, Senator Phillips and Rice Means, was definitely indicated, both by 20,000 or more.

Gain Senator in Oklahoma.

The lead of W. B. Pine, successful Republican candidate in Oklahoma, over former Gov. J. C. Walton, Democratic nominee, was increased to nearly 125,000. This had been one of the doubtful states and represents a Republican gain, as the outgoing senator is a Democrat.

In South Dakota Gov. W. H. McMaster (Rep.) was elected senator by more than 15,000 over U. S. G. Cherry, Democratic candidate.

Returns from New Mexico were incomplete, but seemed to point to the defeat of Senator Bursam (Rep.) by S. G. Brattain, the Democratic contender.

The Farmer-Laborers picked up one new member in the house to join the two now holding office. The addition is W. L. Chaves, a former Republican member, who won over Victor

Mr. Manierre has been a member of the executive committee of the league for ten years and has been active in other civic organizations, especially the Chicago real estate board. He is a member of the real estate firm of Dillies & Manierre.

Other officers elected yesterday are: Adolf Kraus, first vice president; Carl R. Latham, second vice president; Frank H. Jones, treasurer; Paul Steinbrecher, secretary, and S. M. Singleton, executive secretary.

Paul Steinbrecher, Andrew S. Caldwell of Carbondale, Louis M. Greeley, Clarence S. Pellet, James L. Houghtling Jr., Donald F. McPherson, and Ralph A. Bard were elected to the executive committee.

Two Socialists in House.

The two Socialists in the next house will be Representative Berger (Wis.), present member whose election seems assured, though the Republicans think the official canvass may enable them to win, and Representative La Guardia (N. Y.), who is in the present house as a La Follette Republican, but ran this time under the Socialist label. He will continue to affiliate with the La Follette Republican group.

Representative Berger, in a statement commenting on his narrow escape from defeat, accused the La Follette forces of failing to reciprocate in his district for the Socialist support of the La Follette ticket.

Late returns showed Democratic defeats which give Michigan and Pennsylvania to the Republican delegation. John B. Bonowick was elected over Representative Clancy (Dem., Mich.). In Pennsylvania all six present Democrats were defeated and the complete unofficial count showed that A. H. Walters (Rep.) in another district, who had seemed to be defeated, finally pulled through.

WHEATON GRID STAR MISSING IN LOVE MYSTERY

Successful Rival Near Death from Explosive.

(Pictures on back page.) Danny Place, star end of the Wheaton college football team, has disappeared. He vanished from the campus of the Congregational school three weeks ago tonight.

His paralyzed father and his invalid mother, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Place, who reside in Bloomsburg, Pa., are ill from worry. The college faculty has notified Sheriff Heisterman of Du Page county and Chief of Police Sullivan of Wheaton of the boy's disappearance, but for fear of scandal has passed a resolution against making the matter public.

Place's former fiancée, Mrs. William Igenitris, McKeesport, Pa., has written friends in the college that she has not seen him since she shocked the youth last summer by telling him she had been married the day Mrs. Igenitris attended Wheaton college academy last year. At that time her name was Esther Thomas.

Popular in College. Four weeks ago the Igenitris automobile was damaged by a dynamite bomb and the husband of the former fiancée narrowly escaped death, according to college authorities.

Danny Place was popular in the little suburban college, in which 600 students of theology are enrolled. He is credited by the boys in Missionary home, where he roomed, with a deep religious nature and a hot temper that matched his red hair.

He was graduated two years ago from the Nyack Missionary Training institute, Nyack-on-the-Hudson, N. Y., a Christian missionary alliance school, and to continue preparation for the mission field, he was working his way through Wheaton college by washing dishes and waiting on tables in a cafe.

Engaged for Years. Place had been engaged to marry Esther Thomas for years. This fall, after he had been fitted, he went back to Wheaton despondent and unhappy for his second year.

"Danny always was worrying about something," Beverly Haller, another sophomore, who roomed across the hall, said yesterday. "Probably his girl had something to do with it. I know his grades were right."

Danny held his position on the varsity team this year until Sept. 30, when his arm was dislocated in a practice scrimmage.

"Don't worry about me," he told friends as they took him to the doctor. "Jesus knows how this hurts and he will take care of my pain."

He disappeared Oct. 17. At 7:10 o'clock he ran into the house, up the stairs to his room, then out again.

President in East. Dr. Charles A. Blanchard, president of the college, is touring the east. It is believed he will visit the Place home in Bloomsburg. In the meantime J. M. Weaver, treasurer of the college, is in charge of the search for the missing athlete.

Store Bombed as Sequel to Halloween Arrests. Jacob L. Vitz and members of his family were aroused last night by the explosion of a black powder bomb in the entryway of 1408 North Robey street. He has a store on the first floor and lives on the second. Mr. Vitz believes children of the neighborhood were avenging themselves upon him for having a number of them arrested Halloween night for damaging his property. The damage was slight.

4 CANADIANS DIE AFTER DRINKING "CANNED HEAT"

Winnipeg, Man., Nov. 6.—[Special.]—That government liquor control through stores does not stop drinking wood alcohol, canned heat, and other liquids to be had in drug stores, is proven in the death at Brandon, Man., of four eastern Canadian harvesters from drinking these liquids.

The dead are: Charles Burnside, Henry Baker, Robert Peat, and Alex. McLeod.

The men bought liquor from a government store and then, when drunk, sent to a drug store and got wood alcohol, which they diluted in tea and drank. Burnside also drank liquid shoe polish strained through a cloth, while Baker drank a painkiller and a white liniment mixed.

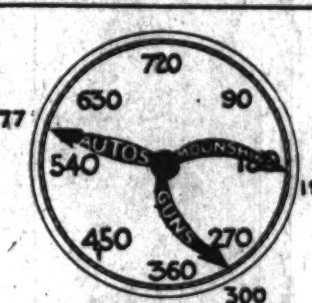

COUNTY'S BISON HERD CORRALED—EXCEPT 2 MISSING. With trees for fence posts, a corral of wire fencing was built at Willow Springs roadhouse for Cook county's new buffalo. Eight head now are grazing within the corral, two of the original ten being at large in the forest preserve after a dash for liberty on Wednesday.

Ransom E. Kennicott, chief forester, said a stout fence would be erected to enclose a large pasture within a few days and the two stray animals then would be herded inside. Their escape resulted, Mr. Kennicott said, when they were freed from crates after three days of close confinement en route from Yellowstone park.

A herd of ten elk will arrive from Yellowstone early in January.

'BACK TO FARM,' SAYS MAGNUS, BUT 'I'M NOT THROUGH'

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 6.—[By The Associated Press.]—Magnus Johnson, Minnesota's widely known "dirt farmer" senator, declared tonight the unofficial returns from Tuesday's election "indicated he had been defeated for reelection."

"Back to the farm," near Kimball, Minn., is the only part of his future plans Senator Johnson has formulated, but he indicated he is by no means through with public life and may again figure in national politics.

This admission was made after returns from all but 100 of the state's 3,407 precincts had been tabulated, giving a 10,000 vote lead to Congressman Thomas D. Schall [Rep.].

Then he smiled philosophically and added: "Well, I don't expect to win every time. I never have. But I never say I'm through."

TWO CHILDREN, MAN ADDED TO DEATHS BY AUTO

County Total Now Is 577 Since Jan. 1.

Children continued yesterday to pay the toll exacted by automobiles. Two died of motor injuries; one other was hurt so badly he may die.

A man died after being struck by an automobile. These three raised the county's motor death toll since Jan. 1, to 577.

Trung from the handle bars of a bicycle which struck a rut, Ernest Menard, 12, 3222 Wilton avenue, was crushed under the JIMMY SCULLO.

rear wheels of a motor bus. The bicycle was being ridden by Robert Nottingham, 12, 3178 Wilton avenue, who was not severely injured.

Boys Die in Hospital. The accident occurred in Sheridan road between Wilton avenue and Rokeby street. The bus driver, Charles Kralkel, 927 Lawrence avenue, was taken into custody, but was thought not to have been responsible. Ernest Menard died at the American hospital a few hours after the accident.

Jimmy Scullo, 11, of 1108 South Morgan street, was running across Blue Island avenue at Taylor street when he was struck by an automobile, receiving injuries that yesterday caused his death in a private hospital. The police directed Arthur B. Roche, 5358 Washington boulevard, whose automobile was supposed to have struck Jimmy, to appear at the inquest today.

Henry Van Tholen, 5, of 1921 West 13th street, was riding on the motor truck with his father, John Van Tholen, when he fell from his seat and was injured. He was taken to the county hospital.

Injuries received Nov. 3 when he was crossing the Midway at Ingleside avenue yesterday caused the death in the Washington Park hospital of Albert Van Gheers, 45, 1009 East 60th street. Police are investigating the accident.

Pedestrians Need Shielding. Pedestrians cannot protect themselves; they must be shielded from their own carelessness. It was observed yesterday by Charles Turbot, inspector of police from Sydney, Australia. He declared Chicago was in dire need of a subway; that one ought to be built right away.

While the foreign office was preparing a note to the soviet secret service circulated the document in the usual way to the military and naval authorities, with a warning to be on the lookout for soviet propaganda. They, in turn, sent it to the divisional and fort commanders. One of these officers showed it to his wife, who mentioned it to a person in contact with Conservative headquarters. Mr. Moyse of the Conservative publicity department got hold of a copy and gave it to the Daily Mail.

MacDonald for Publication. Meanwhile the foreign office investigation was proceeding in the usual unhurried fashion. Prime Minister MacDonald had agreed on the necessity of publication, if the letter proved genuine. He was confirmed in his belief that it was genuine by police information that the communists in England were concentrating tremendous propaganda in the army and navy. It is also stated that one of his secretaries authorized the final publication.

After the electoral defeat an investigation was conducted by a committee of four, Mr. MacDonald, Arthur Henderson, Viscount Haldane, and Lord Parmoor. The chief witnesses were Sir Boris de Child, chief of the secret service; Mr. Gregory of the northern department of the foreign office, and Gen. Burnard Stuart, chief of the military intelligence.

Mr. MacDonald grilled them, trying to get admissions on how the leak occurred to the Daily Mail and the Conservatives, and obtain the name of the first informant. All resisted these demands for information on the ground that the rules of the intelligence service insisted on the utmost secrecy about sources of information, and disclosure might mean the lives of Russian agents.

Zinoviev Letter Which Helped Defeat Labor Party in England Proves Fake

BY JOHN STEELE.

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)

LONDON, Nov. 6.—The Tribune is now able to give the full story of the notorious Zinoviev letter, which did so much to cause the debacle of the Labor party at the recent election, and how the foreign office and prime minister himself came to risk their reputations on what it is now alleged was a fake.

It seems quite certain that the letter was a fake in the sense that it never was sent nor was intended to be sent to the British communists, but it was genuine in the sense that it came to the British authorities from a trusted man in Moscow, who obtained it from the office of the third international.

This also explains the statement in last night's official communique that the original letter had never been produced and so British government department had been anything but the copy.

A Clever Agent. For some time the British admiralty has had an extraordinarily successful agent in Moscow, who on several occasions supplied them with most confidential Soviet documents, in some cases even direct from M. Trotsky's room. With the aid of a commissar he managed to get inside the office of the third international and photographed the Zinoviev letter and a number of other documents, and succeeded in sending the photographs to England. On this statement of facts, and relying on the accuracy of his previous work, the British officials accepted the Zinoviev letter as genuine.

It is now learned, however, that the soviet suspected what the man was doing and planted the letter for him to photograph as a test. In order to make the fake look more trustworthy the soviet officials embodied in the text a recent order sent by M. Zinoviev to the German communists.

When the letter arrived with the other documents in London the secret service paid little attention, as it was receiving similar information every day, but the foreign office jumped at the document because it bore the date of Sept. 15, and if genuine, the soviet were breaking their agreement in the treaty to cease propaganda in England.

While the foreign office was preparing a note to the soviet secret service circulated the document in the usual way to the military and naval authorities, with a warning to be on the lookout for soviet propaganda. They, in turn, sent it to the divisional and fort commanders. One of these officers showed it to his wife, who mentioned it to a person in contact with Conservative headquarters. INVENTOR WILL BRING SAILLESS SAIL SHIP TO U. S.

Hopes to Electrify Farms Through Invention.

BY GEORGE SELDES

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)
[Copyright, 1924, by The Chicago Tribune.]
BERLIN, Nov. 6.—Driven from public attention for a few days by the American election, Germany's biggest sensation since the Zeppelin's flight across the Atlantic, namely, Flettner's rotorship, or sailless sailing ship, today reappeared to claim public attention.

A second rotorship, now building at the Krupp works of the Hansburg-American line, will be sent to New York, so that America may see what is heralded here as an epoch-making invention.

In addition to constructing a ship which, it is claimed, will revolutionize ocean travel, Herr Flettner predicts that his air towers will generate electricity from the air at 40 per cent cheaper than electricity is being obtained at present; that every big farm in America will be run by electricity, and that his aerodynamic invention will make it possible to see new airplane wings with six times the present lifting power. He says the Zeppelin and Goodyear works are negotiating with him for the use of his invention on new Zeppelins.

"Rotorships," said Herr Flettner, whose first rebuilt sailing ship returned safely to Kiel harbor after a test, "will go as fast as steam freighters. However, I propose to build a combination ocean liner with revolving towers which, while not increasing the speed of liners, will save 90 per cent of the coal and oil used and make it possible to reduce passenger rates 65 per cent."

The first rotorship is now on exhibition at Kiel. It has two 60 foot towers with a 9 foot radius, which revolve slowly when started by a gasoline motor, but gain 150 turns a minute under wind action. The ship tacks at the smallest angle, losing little distance. One man operates the steering wheel as well as the tower.

GERMANY GOES BACK TO GOLD STANDARD MONEY

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)

BERLIN, Nov. 6.—Germany's six years of inflated money circulation will come to an end this week when the Reichsbank, in accordance with the Dawes plan, will issue gold marks, it was officially announced today.

Fantastic numbers, such as quadrillions, for paper marks will be declared null and void. All banknotes will be withdrawn from circulation when gold notes, the same as those used before the war, are issued.

Thousand mark notes will be printed on blue corrugated paper, the same as the old time notes.

Probably the first of these notes will be seen in America in the possession of Owen D. Young, who was presented with the second one printed. Mr. Young is sailing on the Homeric on Nov. 15.

NEW FRENCH LAW TO DEPRIVE 500 YANKS OF TITLES

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)

PARIS, Nov. 6.—Nobiliary titles will be abolished in France, according to a law drafted by Minister of Justice Rene Renauld. Henceforth no new titles will be invested and no official recognition will be taken of existing ones. More than 100,000 bogus titles are expected to be affected, as fewer than 20,000 families in France are honestly entitled to carry them.

The government order strikes a mortal blow to American heiresses seeking alleged noble husbands, as only the investiture of imperial nobles under the 1808 charter remains valid. Since the war only sixteen new titles have received investiture, and they are now canceled.

It is estimated that more than 500 American women who married French so-called princes, dukes, barons, and counts will become henceforth plain madames.

OLD HORSE SENT TO DIE HOOFBITS HOME; PARDONED

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)

Mukwanago, Wis., Nov. 6.—(Special.)—Colonel, a 27 year old horse, who pounded Milwaukee pavements in front of a milk cart for sixteen years and who for six years has been living on a "pension" on the Knuth farm near here, won a stay of execution for himself and will probably be allowed to die a natural death for his life of honest toil.

Colonel was loaded on a truck yesterday, taken to Milwaukee twenty miles away and sentenced to die to furnish food for young foxes.

"During the night, however, he slipped away and this morning was waiting at his usual place on the farm. The horse had found the way home on a road which he traveled only twice before, when pensioned, and when 'condemned.'"

AMERICA AGAIN SEEKS PAYMENT FOR RHINE ARMY

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)

PARIS, Nov. 6.—Premier Herriot called a meeting of interallied finance experts this evening, at which Col. James A. Logan formally presented a demand for a share in the proceeds of the occupation of the Ruhr for the American army of occupation costs on the Rhine.

Col. Logan himself was not present, but he declared in writing that the United States, by the Wadsworth agreement, was entitled to 25 per cent of all German reparations payments until the $250,000,000 costs of the American army of occupation were met.

The experts further examined the British and Belgian claims, involving a revision of percentages on the proceeds of the Dawes plan. After the meeting Mr. Herriot said he was drafting a full meeting of the finance ministers of the allied countries could not meet until Dec. 10.

MRS. HART LOSES AN ELECTION, BUT GAINS SON-IN-LAW

U. of I. Couple Wed in Chicago.

This has been an exciting week for Mrs. Mary Ward Hart of Benton, Ill. On Tuesday she ran on the Democratic ticket for congresswoman at large. Yesterday, to compensate her for her defeat, her daughter, Mabel Elizabeth Hart, a sophomore at the University of Illinois, came up to Chicago and was married.

The bridegroom is Elmer W. Kriehaus of Miami, Fla., a senior at the University of Illinois. He is prominent in literary activities on the campus and is a member of Beta Theta Pi. His father is a millionaire lumberman. Mrs. Kriehaus is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta and of Mask and Rattle, the dramatic society.

Honeymoon at Football Game.
"We're going to start our honeymoon at the football game," Mrs. Kriehaus announced last night. "Then we're going back to Urbana and next summer we're going to Oxford, England, where Elmer is going to study. I expect to get my degree in England, too. We were married in a hurry to avoid fuss."

Mrs. Hart at Ceremony.
Mr. Kriehaus' parents are on the way from Europe and did not arrive in time for the ceremony, which was held at the University church of the Disciples of Christ, Dr. Edward Scribner Ames officiating.

Mrs. Kriehaus' parents, Judge G. W. Hart and Mrs. Mary Ward Hart, her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. John L. East Sr., and Mr. and Mrs. Oliver W. Stewart, were among the guests.

Owner Lured to Hospital;
$35,000 in Diamonds Gone
Diamonds valued at $35,000 mysteriously disappeared yesterday from a vault in an office of the Paul N. Lackritz company, jewelers, on the eighth floor of the Heyworth building, 39 East Madison street. The theft was discovered by the owner of the concern, Lackritz said a phone call sent him to St. Luke's hospital, where he learned the call was a ruse. When he returned the jewels were gone, he told Lieut. Egan of the detective bureau.

MAGELLANS MAY PILOT 'CHICAGO' OVER LOOP TODAY

World Cruiser Leaves Dallas This Morning.

Possibility that Linus Lowell H. Smith and Leslie P. Arnold will fly the world cruiser Chicago over the loop late today arose last night when a dispatch from Dallas, Tex., announced that the flyers would leave there early this morning. Officials of the Army and Navy club were notified and plans were made for the flyers' reception, should they arrive during the day.

Arrival Held Feasible.
The air lanes between Dallas and Chicago measure approximately 500 miles. Such a distance in one hop is a tiresome and difficult job, even with present day airplanes, aeronautical experts said last night. But officials of the Army and Navy club pointed out that many such flights were made while Smith and Arnold were touring the globe.

Final Celebration Plans.
"There is no need for them to arrive today, but if the wind remains in the southwest and they want to make the jump it is entirely possible. It would not surprise me to see them in Chicago late tomorrow."

BEATEN DAILY, GIRL WIFE TRIES TO TAKE LIFE

Mrs. Ruth Green, 19 years old, 3001 Central Park avenue, who has been married a year and a half, attempted to commit suicide yesterday by drinking poison. She was found unconscious in her home shortly after noon and taken to the county hospital. Last night Mrs. Green recovered consciousness and physicians said she would recover.

"My husband, William, is a street car conductor. He beats me every day," she told police. "I get whipped as regularly as I get my meals, sometimes more regularly. He came home drunk last night and beat me, and then beat me again this noon. I couldn't stand it any longer."

The police said they were going to talk to William Green.

ILLINOIS TO TOP UNION IN PAVED ROADS BY JAN. 1

1924 Total Twice That of Next Highest State.

BY OSCAR HEWITT.

Illinois probably will lead every state in the nation in concrete highway by Jan. 1. To date this year (Nov. 1) it has completed nearly twice as great a mileage as has been built by any other commonwealth.

When the year began Illinois had the equivalent of 1,991 miles of concrete pavement eighteen feet wide and was surpassed then only by California, with 1,328 miles. New York was then trailing with 1,241 miles, and Pennsylvania followed with 1,082 miles. But California has built only 1,563,329 square yards in 1924, up to Nov. 1, as compared with 10,617,973 square yards in Illinois.

Leader for Three Years
Illinois has been the leader in concrete road construction for the last three years. This year it has built more than a sixth of all of the concrete highways constructed in the nation; last year it built more than a fifth of the nation's total, and in 1922 it had considerably more than any other state of the aggregate yardage of the country.

Last year the yardage in Illinois was 11,065,959, and the year before 8,069,026. For the United States as a whole the figures for three years are 87,444,479 in 1924, 54,888,224 in 1923, and 44,994,119 in 1922.

A Comparison by Figures.
Illinois' superiority in road construction is shown in the following tabulation, as compared with other states in which the Tinsbury circuit is extensively used, as well as other states in which there has been extensive concrete road construction:

COLORED JUDGE LIKELY TO TRY HIS OWN RACE

Albert Bailey George, elected Municipal Judge Tuesday, and the first Negro in America to be elected to a court of record, probably will sit in the South Wabash avenue court, where most of the prisoners will be of his own color.

"The colored people of Chicago have chosen one of their own number to be a judge and I think they are entitled to have him hear their own cases," Chief Justice Harry Olson said yesterday. "I have not fully made up my mind, but I don't think I could put George anywhere else and be fair to the colored people."

ALDERMEN HEAR NEW STORIES OF PENSION GRAFT

$10,000 Cost Ex-Cops
$8,000, It's Charged.

Three witnesses summoned by the council police committee yesterday told new stories of alleged irregularities in the administration of the police pension fund.

One declared it had cost a group of eight retired policemen $8,000 to secure $10,000 in back pension payments.

A widow declared she received only $1,500 of the $3,052 award made to her by the pension board, while another asserted she got none of the $683 back pension authorized for her.

Board Rejects Their Claims.
Herman F. Hahn, a retired policeman, declared he and seven other policemen—E. H. McGeehan, J. T. O'Brien, S. J. Dooley, R. A. Hunt, David McLean, W. N. Parker, and Joseph Beautel—applied for pensions in 1917. Their claims were denied by the pension board on the ground that the applicants all were under 50 years of age. The eight men then retained an attorney—now dead—to press the claims in court, and the late Judge Walker issued a writ of mandamus directing the pension board to pay them. The state Supreme court, however, overruled Judge Walker.

Notwithstanding the Supreme court's ruling, the pension board awarded the eight men an aggregate of $10,000 in September, 1921. A check for the amount was made out in favor of McGeehan as "attorney in fact" for the group, according to Hahn. But the eight policemen got only $2,000, he said.

Another Costly Transaction.
McGeehan also was mentioned by Mrs. Ella Callahan Mullane, widow of Policeman Dennis Callahan, as the "attorney in fact" who secured an award of $3,052 for her after her marriage to Michael Mullane. McGeehan, she said, told her he had evidence that Callahan had died as a result of injuries received in line of duty rather than from natural causes and advised that she filed a claim for a pension. A check for $3,052 was issued in her name, but she received only $1,500. Mrs. Mullane testified. The canceled check with an endorsement by Peter S. Lynch, then secretary of the pension board and now a trustee of the fund, was offered as evidence to the aldermen.

Josephine T. Walton, divorced wife of the late Policeman Marshall N. Walton, testified she was awarded a monthly pension after Walton's death, despite her divorce from him. She said she had urged her to waive a claim for back pension in order to secure a $50 monthly allotment. On Nov. 10, 1923, she testified, she gave up as "attorney in fact" the check for $950, which had been given her for back pensions.

PAYS FOR TOUTER WORK.
Mrs. Alice Lutz, 3840 West Adams street, was discharged yesterday. She had been employed by the city for 17 years, 17 of 313 South Francisco avenue, who refused to stop playing back of her home. She will see $250, his husband will.

The Thatcher Furnace Co. of Newark, N. J., employs six 7 1/2-ton Pierce-Arrow trucks for hauling heavy castings for furnaces, boilers and ranges.

In a recent letter this company said, "During the past two years these trucks averaged 15,000 miles each per year. Our castings have been hauled without a single breakdown recorded. No repairs have so far been necessary. The nature of the loads carried is heavy and varied. Each truck uses less than a quart of oil per day and averages five miles or more to a gallon of gas. We find Pierce-Arrow trucks exceedingly economical in operation and we feel justified in highly recommending them."

Haulage economies are a vital factor in your business. Let us show you how efficient, powerful Pierce-Arrow trucks will reduce your costs.

RADIO FOR BLIND MOVE INDORSED BY THOUSANDS

From W-G-N, The Tribune broadcast station on the Drake hotel, the call for funds to place a radio receiving set in the home of every needy blind person in the United States went out again last night. The campaign is the joint undertaking of The Chicago Tribune, the American Foundation for the Blind, and the American Radio Association. It will be carried on in these columns daily, as announced yesterday, as The Chicago Tribune Radio Fund for the Blind.

The opening of this enterprise struck a sympathetic chord in the hearts of many thousands in the middle west, especially among owners of radio sets who have learned to appreciate this new means of home entertainment. Many expressions of praise for the plan were heard during the day.

There is no limit on the amount that may be given by an individual, firm, or corporation. Every cent contributed will be devoted to the purpose indicated and every contributor may know that what he gives will go to brighten hours of loneliness in some home of the blind.

President Coolidge has fully endorsed the purpose of the movement and has accepted the chairmanship of the honorary national committee. "Let every sighted person help the sightless" is the slogan of the drive. It is proposed to bring this cause to the attention of every person in the United States during the three months' campaign, or until every needy blind person is equipped with a set to meet the need in each case.

For the benefit of those who may not have read the initial announcement yesterday, it may be said that the campaign had its inception with Alfred M. Caddell, organizer and secretary of the American Radio Association, the membership of which comprises more than 1,750 radio editors throughout the United States and broadcast listeners in every state of the Union.

Boy Scouts to Aid.
The American Foundation for the Blind is the national organization of societies that work for the betterment of the blind. It cooperates with the national committee for the prevention of blindness and with boards of education throughout the country.

All subscriptions should be addressed to: Radio Fund for the Blind, The Chicago Tribune, 7 South Dearborn Street, Chicago, Ill.

ASK MAYOR TO RECALL BUILDING OF FIRST HOUSE

Mayor Dever will be asked this morning to arrange a suitable celebration on Dec. 4, 1874, the mayor will be reminded, Father Marquette, the French Jesuit missionary, arrived at the mouth of the river with two French companions and erected a hut of willow saplings and birch bark on the site now covered by the Wrigley building.

He had visited the site of Chicago the year before with Joliet, but had simply passed by. The second time he was obliged to camp near the mouth of the river, because it was frozen over. He remained a few days, killing three buffalo, four deer, and wild turkey and partridges. Later he went upstream as far as the present Robey street on the south branch, where he established permanent winter quarters.

All this was told the Chicago Lodge of Elks last night, and they appointed a committee consisting of Exalted Ruler Frank Sullivan, W. J. Shek, and Thomas O'Shaughnessy to call the facts to the mayor's attention.

Elmer Gets Opera, but Not Civic

And Finds All the Ether
Packed with Classics.

BY ELMER DOUGLASS

Since Mr. Elmer began his organ recital from W-G-N with the plumes' chorals from "Tannhauser" we may dare begin to review the same way. But to avoid being too classical we move at once to WMAQ, where the Hotel La Salle orchestra played three dances from "Henry VIII."

At 8:45 we found Ralph Emerson at WMAQ playing the dead march from "Faust." Even Jopka De Babary's orchestra, from KTW, at 7 played some classical by Meyerbeer.

At 10:30 the actors in "Appianus" at the La Salle theater, via KTW, are laughing, crying, and having a most distracting time—especially when I am trying to write.

More "Tannhauser" this time at WLS. Robert Stevens featured. That's the way to prepare us for the opera. Only it was too short. Make "Faust" next week longer, won't you?

At 8:24 Harry Hansen, from WMAQ, to whose voice and mission I have become partial, gave a delightful talk on "Charles Dickens."

At W-G-N, a tenor tripping along in the most novel kind of a fuzzy wuzzy curiosity.

WIFE SAYS SHE'S STARVED FOR OTHER WOMAN

Mrs. Barnard Asks Court to Protect Home.

Frank Barnard, 51, is still handsome and loves excitement. His wife, 45 years old, admits that she no longer is beautiful and that she likes to sit by the fire.

That situation, with a church choir singer thrown in to complicate matters, came to a crisis over the home of the two on 4317 North Hermitage street, which is about to be sold for taxes. The affair was placed before Judge Morgan in the Court of Domestic Relations yesterday for solution.

Charges Desertion.

Mrs. Barnard says her husband deserted her two years ago after falling in love with a pretty young woman who sang with him in a Lake Forest church choir.

"He felt young and the women were easy about him," she said, "and he thought me too old for him, after twenty-eight years of married life."

"He tried to divorce me on grounds of cruelty and even my own children testified against him. Judge Scanlan gave the case out of court when my husband admitted that he had perjured himself to help his father."

Husband Ordered to Pay.

"Then when he found he could not divorce me he tried to starve me to death. He will give me no money. Our house is to be sold for taxes unless he shows me to draw upon our joint account in the Chicago Title and Trust company."

Judge Morgan continued the case until Nov. 11 for investigation and ordered Barnard, who is a book salesman, to pay his wife $15 a week until then.

MARITAL ROW LEADS WOMAN TO TAKE POISON

Miss Dorothy Nelson, who terms herself "just a wanderer on this earth," and who is at county hospital as a result of a suicide attempt, was identified yesterday as Mrs. Dorothy Nelson, former wife of H. I. Nelson, 210 Sherman avenue, Pittsburgh, Pa.

She was found unconscious in her room at the Planters hotel on Wednesday night after she took several. Several notes on pink paper told of her desire to die.

She said yesterday that she and her husband became estranged a year ago when he met a crowd that was different. Police yesterday began search for her father, said to be John Crawford of Milwaukee, Wis. Her grandmother, Mrs. Eliza Eldredge, 80, is an inmate of the Veterans' Memorial hospital, Waukegan, Ill., it was learned.

SUBWAY AFTER 20 YEARS DOES A VAN WINKLE

Awakes, Like Rip, but Nothing's Changed.

BY ARTHUR EVANS.

When the dig it now aldermen took up subway yesterday their delinquencies sounded like an old settler's meeting.

Rip Van Winkle could have woken from a twenty year snooze in the local transportation committee and not been the conversation with little hitch.

From some quarters the old argument was advanced that the city's districts never will vote for a subway in Chicago in two years.

"I picked up an old Tribune the other day," said Ald. Joseph O. Kostner. "It was of the year 1904, and it had a big story about Gen. Milton J. Fireman going to New York with several other aldermen, and when they came back they said 'We'll start a subway in Chicago in two years.'"

"Two decades of gab and not a shovel turned," said Ald. Tom Byrne. "They ought to form a new club—the Survivors of the Twenty Year War of Bull Con. What the people want is a subway and better transportation and not seven or eight million more words on the question."

One of the several proposals before the committee was read—the Blair plan—and the air began to thicken with talk of municipal ownership, purchase price, unification, and whether the stockholders would take L. O. U.'s for their holdings if the bankers pronounced them sound and marketable and if the city paid the price which the surface and elevated lines ask. At the end of the table Ald. Henry L. Pick pulled a matronly smile. He hitched up the glasses on his memory.

Rehearsal Through 25 Years. "Twenty-eight years ago," he said, "I first started to listen to this line. For twenty-eight years I've been hearing about municipal ownership. We heard all about it during all Mayor Harrison's terms of office; we had it under Mayor Dunne, conversationally and academically. We've had it in politics for more than a quarter of a century, and now we can wake up and find we haven't got it yet and we are still shy on good transportation facilities."

"This talk today is an echo of talk we heard back in the days when Chicago was only half its present size in population. Yet they wonder why some of us have a pain in the ear."

To Hear Another Plan. Today the committee will listen to John B. Ferguson describe his plan for a subway under Grant park north and south. Mr. Ferguson was born on the site of the present Palmer house in the days when State street was a plank road. His friends claim he is the oldest native Chicagoan who has resided continuously in Chicago. He was one of the early advocates of a subway to relieve growing congestion downtown. Ald. John J. Connelley also is to be invited to present his plan for a subway in State street. Next week traction officials are to be asked to appear.

MAY DEATH OF BURNES. The death of Andrew Leith, 231 East 118th street, at the Illinois Central hospital yesterday from burns he received while at the Standard Oil company at Whiting, Ind., will be investigated today by a coroner's jury.

WRECK JURORS ASK SAFETY AT RAIL CROSSINGS

Want to Avert New Disasters.

Indications were seen yesterday that the coroner's jury investigating Chicago's latest grade crossing disaster, that cost ten lives, will demand the elevation or depression of railroad tracks where street cars cross them within the city limits.

The dictum of the jury appeared to be that if there are ordinances requiring the elevation or depression of such railroad tracks, those ordinances must be enforced; but if they are lacking they must be enacted.

Want Guidance on Laws.

For the jurors asked, just before adjournment until 3 o'clock this afternoon that Assistant State's Attorney George E. Gorman and Corporation Counsel Francis K. Busch took up the laws and be prepared to give the jury full information.

Testimony during the day again took the jury through the scenes of the tragedy, Carl Olson, conductor, and Robert Glenn, motorman, again told their stories.

Railroad engineers and switchmen told of the long line of freight cars—fifty-eight of them—slipping along, almost silently, through the night. The freight cars crashed the rear end of the street car, like an eggshell against the tower house, from which the gates should have been let down.

The employees of the street car company and railroad company retold their versions. Attorney Thomas Symmes was there representing the Chicago Surface Lines. Attorney M. L. Blum appeared for the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul, while Assistant State's Attorney Gorman watched proceedings in the interest of the public.

Crossing Watchman Freed.

John Brahe, 1633 Fullerton avenue, watchman, who had been held because he failed to lower the gates, was released by Deputy Coroner Kennedy at the end of the day on the recommendation of the jury. His release came when Attorney Oscar A. Kroft made a plea that Brahe was the only one held, while, if he were guilty of negligence, he must be one of half a dozen or more equally guilty.

Brahe had earlier in the day admitted that he had taken one drink hour before going on duty. He said he got it in a saloon at Webster and Southport avenues. Hudson avenue police then arrested Michael Kinsden, the proprietor of the saloon.

Olson, the conductor, and Glenn, the motorman of the car, reiterated their testimony that Olson walked to the center of the crossing, looked both ways, and then, not seeing the train approaching, gave the motorman the signal to come ahead.

Both declared there were no lights on the rear end of the train.

PLAGUE GROWS IN LOS ANGELES; THREE MORE DIE

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 6.—(Special.)—Three more dead and four new cases today in the quarantine area of Balboa, a suburb, brought the death toll of the pneumonic plague epidemic to twenty-eight. There have been thirty-seven cases definitely diagnosed as pneumonic and bubonic plague. Of nine living victims in general hospital isolation quarters two may recover.

Dr. Walter M. Dickie, secretary of the state board of health, in charge of the plague fighting campaign, today issued a statement appealing to local newspapers to print facts of the epidemic and give the disease its true name.

Newspapers until today had termed the plague "malignant pneumonia," "black flu," "double pneumonia," and similar names, but none until today mentioned that the plague of Asia had gripped certain sections of the city.

A quarantine area, with armed guards, has been proclaimed in Balboa, but health officials denied reports that several persons have been shot trying to escape from the quarantine area.

The hotels and railroads have suffered many cancellations from eastern visitors.

FALLS IN RIVER, SAVED. Joseph Prosser, 40 years old, of 1430 Westwood street, fell into the river near Blackhawk street yesterday and was rescued by the police. They said he had been drinking.

WIFE FREED FROM LAWYER ACCUSED IN WERNER THEFT

Attorney Julian C. Ryer, arrested on a charge of receiving stolen property, part of the $1,000,000 loot in the Werner Bros. vault robbery, was divorced yesterday by his wife, Mrs. Marie R. Ryer, 4846 North Lawndale avenue.

Mrs. Ryer, who accepted monthly alimony of $150, told Judge Harry A. Lewis that Ryer deserted her and their two children, Charles, 11, and Henrietta, 8, more than two years ago.

Charges against Ryer also were heard before Circuit Judge Edickham in connection with the latter's investigation of lawyer's fees paid by Jacob Goldman, former professional receiver, who has been convicted for mismanaging the court's funds.

MOSCOW'S STAR TROUBLE MAKER SENT TO PARIS

Chief of Propaganda and Espionage.

BY RAYMOND FENDRICK.

(Chicago Tribune Special Service.)
CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 5.—Comrade Vladimir Kolomoitoff, former chief of propaganda and espionage at the soviet embassy in Constantinople, has been ordered to Paris in the same capacity.

As head of the Constantinople
G. P. U. or propaganda and espionage section of the Moscow foreign office, which M. Kolomoitoff is the head, he had a higher post in the soviet embassy here for several years than any other soviet agent. He was in full control of all bolshevik propaganda, espionage, arms traffic and revolutionary activity in Syria, Greece, Anatolia, Bulgaria, and Macedonia.

M. Kolomoitoff had charge of the revolutionary work in Syria which was intended to force France to recognize the bolsheviks. Under the extraordinary soviet system Ambassador Sourtchikoff reported directly to M. Kolomoitoff, who is the real chief, instead of George Tchicherin, of the diplomatic side of the Moscow foreign office, while M.
Kolomoitoff reported to M. Tchicherin and both were set to watch each other.
Both use separate codes and separate postboxes.

A Former Banker.
M. Kolomoitoff is a brilliant business man who directed three of the biggest banks in Moscow before the war. He was a monarchist and fled to Constantinople after the revolution. In a few months he went broke in Constantinople.
He accepted a bolshevik offer of $500 gold rubles ($1,500 monthly) to take charge of the Constantinople center of propaganda and espionage work.
He first used the Winchester, soviet state commercial agency, as a cover, but when the G. P. U. was established two years ago he installed himself in the embassy and began to dominate
M. Sourtchikoff because propaganda is the chief objective of the soviet diplomatic service.

He subsidized many Turkish newspapers and newspaper printers and some Angora deputies to support the soviet cause, but his revolutionary propaganda among the Turkish people failed, both because religion still has a deep hold on the people and there are no large industrial sections. Then he directed his activity to the Kurds in Anatolia.

Turks Only Protest.
The Turkish government immediately learned of his dangerous revolutionary activity among the Kurds, which was directed to the establishment of a soviet Kurdish state embracing all of eastern Anatolia and the Mosul vilayet. At that time
Angora needed Russian assistance against the Greeks, and it did not dare to protest openly.

Six months ago M. Kolomoitoff was given a mission to overthrow the Greek and Bulgarian governments and to establish soviet republics in those countries. His post at Constantinople was given to a mysterious gentle Russian who had taken the Jewish name of Golits for business reasons. M.
Kolomoitoff was not entirely successful in Greece and Bulgaria, but Moscow considers that he did satisfactory work there.

Threat to Turkey.
The establishment of a big Kurdish republic would not only menace the existence of Turkey, but would forever prevent a union with the Moslem provinces of Azerbaijan and the Mohammedan part of the province of Georgia. The Turkish secret police quietly expel agents when they find them, but until Turkey reaches an agreement with England over Mosul
Angora cannot deal firmly with Russia.

The different informers of this Tribune in the G. P. U. propaganda service unanimously report that more than half the money now arriving from headquarters in Moscow in counterfeit English pounds sterling, American dollars, and Dutch guilders. The soviet government has had its engraving department experimenting on counterfeit English and American money since the revolution and the counterfeit money now being made is almost perfect in appearance.

GRAVE DUG FOR DEMOCRAT CAPS FOR THIRD PARTY

Leaders See Liberalization as Hope for 1928.

tract back all the elements it has lost to the La Follette party and present a formidable opposition to the conservative forces arrayed under the banner of the G. O. P.

Various leaders are expected to come forward with the scheme of ousting the Democratic and the third parties in 1928. William G. McAdoo is understood to entertain ambitions of capturing the Democratic nomination in 1928 when he will be only 44 years young. He will undertake to bring the railroad brotherhoods back from the La Follette to the Democratic party and to rehabilitate the Jeffersonian west of the Mississippi on a liberal, if not radical, foundation.

Reviews Wilson Tradition. The McAdoo theory is that if the east is bound to its conservative gods, the Democrats can win the presidency with a combination of the west and the solid south, as his father-in-law, Woodrow Wilson, won in 1912. In the project of rehabilitating the Democracy as the party of radicalism, however, Mr. McAdoo will encounter competition. It is not doubted that the popular Gov. Al Smith of New York will come forward again bidding for the nomination as a liberal, if not a radical, who possesses the best chance of beating the Republicans with a combination of eastern and southern states.

It is apparent that either McAdoo or Smith, the principal contenders for the Democratic nomination in the New York convention, would have made a better run than Davis. If McAdoo had been the candidate the railroad brotherhoods would have been for him, La Follette probably would not have run, and the Democrats might have carried a number of states west of the Mississippi.

Smith Seems Stronger. Likewise it is conceivable that Smith, had he been nominated, would

MONEY ORDERS FOR $2,736,000 SET TWO DAY RECORD HERE

Money orders for $1,518,000 were issued yesterday by the Chicago post office. The total for Wednesday was $1,218,000. The two days' volume was the largest ever written in a similar period in the history of the Chicago money order division.

According to reports made to Postmaster Arthur C. Lueder at the close of business yesterday, 180,000 orders were written Wednesday and 248,000 yesterday.

In commenting on the record Assistant Postmaster John McGrath said "the increase indicates a good business condition generally and an exceedingly large business for the fall and winter."

have been a far stronger candidate than Davis. He doubtless would have won the election vote of New York and possibly of New Jersey, Connecticut, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, and Wisconsin.

Many Democrats are of the opinion that the best chance of Democratic victory in the future lies in embracing the cause not only of the radicals but of the wets, thus making a bid not only for the La Follette progressives but for one support of the Atlantic seaboard states, which are conspicuously opposed to prohibition.

DAVIS CREEPING UP ON COOLIDGE IN NEW MEXICO

Albuquerque, N. M., Nov. 6.—(By the Associated Press.)—Coolidge, 37,947; Davis, 37,120; La Follette, 6,207. For senator: Burton, Republican, 40,316; Bratton, Democrat, 44,855. For congressman: Hubbell, Republican, 38,047; Morrow, Democrat, 44,194. For governor: Otero, Republican, 41,481; Hannett, Democrat, 44,702.

Young Peacemaker Shot Trying to Stop Fight

Stephen Zieslow, 17 years old, 933 North Leavitt street, was shot in the chest last night when he tried to stop a fist fight between two boys. Martin Grossman, 18 years old, 1849 North Rockwell street, who fired the shot, is being held.

'HONEST JOHN,' A DEMOCRAT, WINS DAKOTA POST

Fargo, N. D., Nov. 6.—(By the Associated Press.)—"Honest John" Burke, three times governor of North Dakota, United States treasurer during the Wilson administration, and a principal in the famous New York bankruptcy case of Karpis and Burke in 1932, when he was rendered virtually penniless, came back with a sweeping victory Tuesday in the race for membership on the North Dakota supreme court bench.

"Honest John's" experience since the day he left North Dakota for Washington as treasury head, April 1, 1913, are colorful.

After serving in the treasury he returned to North Dakota. Lucrative offers from New York financiers caused him finally to associate himself with Louis Karpis, New York broker, organizing the brokerage firm of Karpis and Burke. The firm, caught in a swirl of brokerage failures, went to "the wall" on Feb. 1, 1932.

It was here that "Honest John's" friends claimed he live up to his sobriquet. Every cent of his personal fortune was turned over by Burke to the firm's creditors.

GIRL SHOTS MAN SHE ACCUSES IN CITY HALL CROWD

Before a score of onlookers in the corridor outside the Morris court in the city hall, Ruth Beal, 17 years old, 724 East 44th street, fired four shots from a revolver at Wilbur Carr, 26, 127 East 37th street. Both are colored.

The girl charged Carr had mistreated her after entering into a marriage ceremony. He denied the charge, saying that he already was married, and that the girl had persecuted him when he refused to give up his wife and marry her.

Carr was taken to the Iroquois hospital, wounded in an arm and a shoulder. The Beal girl was arrested and held at the detective bureau. She was disarmed in the hallway by P. S. Delaney, a colored lawyer.

Warships Pursue Rebels on Brazilian Battleship

Buenos Aires, Nov. 6.—(By the Associated Press.)—A dispatch to La Nación from Rio Janeiro says the Brazilian battleship Minas Geraes, accompanied by two submarines and several auxiliary vessels, has put to sea in pursuit of the battleship Sao Paulo, the crew of which mutinied several days ago and left Rio harbor.

W. J. BRYAN SAYS 1928 CAMPAIGN SHOULD START

Miami, Fla., Nov. 6.—(By the Associated Press.)—"It was a severe defeat and we must begin at once on the campaign for 1928," says William Jennings Bryan in a telegram received here today. "It is too early to analyze returns, but I will make a statement soon," the telegram added.

To Discontinue Lectures. Kimbra, N. Y., Nov. 6.—William Jennings Bryan announced here today that he planned to discontinue his lectures and retire to Miami, Fla., where he will devote his time to writing his memoirs.

Asked if he would continue actively in politics, Mr. Bryan said he would be interested in politics as long as he lived, but was noncommittal as to whether or not he would be actively engaged.

DAVIS SEA TRIP, THEN RETURN TO LAW PRACTICE

New York, Nov. 6.—(Special.)—Following a long winter cruise in the Mediterranean, John W. Davis, defeated Democratic candidate for President, will resume practice of law in New York City. H. G. Hathaway and George Zangley, secretaries to Mr. Davis, are working with him at Locust Valley today clearing up political matters and arranging for the trip.

Mr. Davis will remain here for two or three days, winding up political business, and will then go to his home at Clarksburg, W. Va., before sailing.

Whether Mr. Davis will return to the law firm from which he resigned as head to accept the nomination, or go into business for himself, is not known among his close friends, it was said.

SAVES WOMAN WHO PLUNGES INTO COLD LAKE

Maymond Hoffman, 3110 Sunnyside avenue, leaped from his automobile into the lake near the Municipal pier yesterday and rescued Mrs. Rebecca Schrifer, 1808 South Trumbull avenue, after she had thrown herself into the lake. He seized her first by the collar of her coat, but she slipped out of the garment and might have gone down had not her skirt buoyed her up until Hoffman could grab her by the hair and drag her to shore.

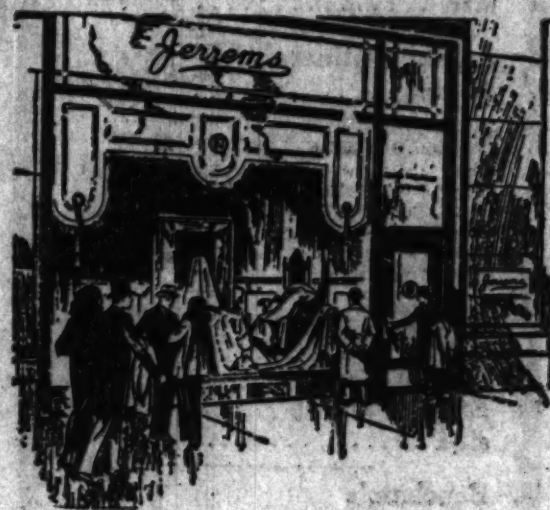

She was taken to the Psychopathic hospital, where she said she had not intended to kill herself. Her husband intimated there had been a quarrel.

Mrs. Schrifer is 34 and the mother of a 20 month old child. When she was rescued it was found she had a nickel clutched tightly in either hand.

A name that makes it easier to choose beans

Before any product was given his personal name, Van Camp required it to possess distinctive superiority in flavor from all others of its kind

You are accustomed to selecting the label in order to be sure of the product. But are you always careful to do it?

You get more than just beans when you choose the Van Camp label. You get all the name represents.

Van Camp was a creative flavor genius. He was among the first to recognize the importance of flavor, appetizing flavor.

Sixty-one years ago he began to study the art of developing the countless flavors latent in certain foods.

He learned to retain flavor

Every whisp of flavor he caught by baking beans in their own juices in sealed cans.

The sweet, fragrant, flavor-laden vapors which escape from the home bean pot into the kitchen, he retained in the can.

A melting tenderness unknown before Van Camp realized that the bean had to be made more tender. The skin could not be removed; its toughness had to be taken away. He solved the problem by taking the mineral out of the water in which they were cooked.

Back of this product is the name, what it stands for and what it represents.

He observed people to learn flavor preferences

When Van Camp saw people in public places and in homes add cat-sup to beans, he decided that the wonderful flavor of the baked bean combined with tomato sauce would have a double appeal.

So he created a tomato sauce, delicately mild and wonderfully appetizing, and then he discovered how to bake it right in with pork and beans.

The appeal of the combined tomato and bean flavors was welcomed everywhere, and each year since more people have become lovers of Van Camp pork and beans prepared with tomato sauce.

When a name means as much as Van Camp's does, be smothering about getting it.

MELLON TO STAY, ALSO STONE, IS CABINET GUESS

Hoover Likely to Demand Relief, It Is Believed.

BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.
Washington, D. C., Nov. 6.—(Special.)—Secretary Mellon of the treasury and Attorney General Stone will be in the Coolidge cabinet after March 4, it was authoritatively stated today. Friends of Mr. Mellon gave assurance that he would remain in the cabinet if President Coolidge asked him to do so. At the White House it was indicated that he would certainly be asked to remain. Whether or not, however, he will serve out the full four-year term of President Coolidge is regarded as problematical. It is felt, however, that he will remain in the cabinet a sufficient length of time to make certain that the Coolidge policies are made effective.

Stone Also Would Stick.
It may be said that the position of Attorney General Stone is similar to that of Secretary Mellon. He will remain in the cabinet if asked to do so by the President, and there is no doubt that the request will be made.

There also is no doubt that the President will request Herbert Hoover, secretary of commerce, to remain in his official family, but it is less certain whether Mr. Hoover will feel that he can afford to remain for another four years in addition to the time he already has given to the public service.

It is generally conceded that Chairman Butler of the Republican national committee could have a cabinet place if he desired it, possibly the postmaster generalship, for which C. Bascom Sloop, the President's secretary, also has been mentioned, or the interior department portfolio.

31 FOR WALLACE JOB

A list of thirty-one names of farm leaders was sent to President Coolidge yesterday by O. E. Bradfute, president of the American Farm Bureau federation, in reply to the President's request for suggestions for the next secretary of agriculture to fill the vacancy left by the death of Henry C. Wallace.

In the telegrams received here by farm bureau headquarters from twenty-nine states those most frequently proposed were Frank O. Lowden, former governor of Illinois; J. R. Howard, former president of the farm bureau federation; John W. Coverdale, secretary of the Grain Marketing company; Howard M. Gore, acting secretary of agriculture; L. J. Taber, master of the National Grange; Murray D. Lincoln, secretary of the Ohio Farm Bureau federation; and Dr. Arthur Gilbert, commissioner of agriculture of Massachusetts.

AL AND M'ADOO FIGHTING AGAIN TO RULE PARTY

Both Aim at White House in 1928.

New York, Nov. 6.—(Special.)—Gov. Al Smith has emerged successful from his contest with Col. Theodore Roosevelt for the governorship of New York only to face another bitter struggle with William G. McAdoo for control of the Democratic party, left without clear cut leadership by the defeat of John W. Davis. The first clash between supporters of the two rivals is expected at the next meeting of the party's national committee, probably late in December or in January.

With only fifty precincts missing Gov. Smith continued tonight to hold a plurality of 112,178 over Roosevelt. He will be a lonely figure at Albany, however, since not another Democrat on the state ticket succeeded in breaking the landslide for Coolidge and the G. O. P.

Beats Record Harding Vote.
Practically complete returns from throughout the state establish that Coolidge has outstripped President Harding's record vote and snuffed out the La Follette movement. Tabulations thus far give Coolidge a state plurality of 857,000. This figure is under Harding's 1,000,000, but Harding had no La Follette to contend with. La Follette's total vote in the state is around 461,000.

Renewal of the feud between Smith and McAdoo forces is looked on here as an indication that both leaders intend to seek the Democratic presidential nomination again in 1928.

The predicted clash is expected to come over an attempt of McAdoo supporters to elect a new national chairman in place of Clem L. Shaver. It is generally felt that Shaver is not desirous of holding his post longer than will be necessary to clean up the party's deficit, estimated at $200,000.

Favor Jersey for Post.
Shaver would be satisfactory to the Smith forces, but if the McAdoo men seek a change it is believed Mayor Frank Hague of Jersey City, vice chairman of the national committee, would be the Smith candidate. Col. Samuel B. Aronson of Kansas is said to be the probable choice of McAdoo's friends.

Mr. Davis is not being considered in the new alignment. Like Cox of Ohio, his defeat takes him out of the picture. George Brennan of Illinois and Tom Taggart of Indiana, neither of whom impressed as national leaders are expected to be Smith's lieutenants.

Mrs. G. R. Giles Dies After Taking Poison at Hotel

Mrs. G. R. Giles, 38, who swallowed veronal while in the Claridge hotel, 1244 North Dearborn street, last Tuesday, died yesterday in the Passavant hospital. Police are looking for her husband, Edward E. Giles, who is employed by the Smith Piano company, 214 South Wabash avenue, to ask him why his wife committed suicide.

EMPRESS EXILE SUES PAWNER OF CROWN JEWELS

MADRID, Nov. 6.—Former Empress Zita of Austria has entered a suit in the Madrid civil courts to obtain the crown jewels pawned in 1919 by Baron Steiner, former Emperor Charles' friend.

The exiled empress, who is living quietly in San Sebastian, alleges that Baron Steiner had no authorization to sell the jewels but only to pledge them for two years. Instead of doing so, Baron Steiner, who was recognized everywhere as the emperor's best friend, had no trouble in selling them, obtaining 12,102,104 Swiss francs for them in Zurich.

This represents only a small fraction of their actual worth, as the jewels in question included some of the greatest treasures in Europe, notably the famous "necklace of roses" collected for Empress Maria Theresa on her marriage in 1765. This is made of huge diamonds and is valued at about $2,000,000.

Girl Students Help Put Out Lake Forest Fire

Fire in an old frame building on the Ferry Hall campus in Lake Forest yesterday caused damage estimated at $2,000. The flames were extinguished by volunteer firemen. The fire was discovered as 1,500 students were eating lunch at noon. Scores of the young women rushed to the scene and helped the firemen by carrying water.

G. O. P. FACTIONS, VICTORY WON, LOOK TO FUTURE

Each Seeks Leadership Within County.

BY PARKE BROWN.

Shifting back to the pre-campaign battle without even a day's delay, the Republican factions in Cook county have begun preparations for a renewal of their intra-party warfare.

Alexander Fyfe, who as chairman of the campaign committee had the difficult task of steering the three crowded Republican craft up to election day, finished the job with the thanks of all hands.

ALEXANDER FYFE, who was neutral selected to keep things on an even keel, to see that the rowing was done in the same general direction. He had his troubles, and, with the race over, lost no time in getting back on solid ground.

Back on Old Footing.

With his departure from headquarters, each faction held its own conference and arranged to get back on a war footing. From now on each will be occupied with building up its own organization throughout the county.

The regular or 1916 committee, led by Homer K. Galpin and Charles V. Barrett, arranged to open its own permanent headquarters at the Hotel Sherman. These will be functioning as soon as the official count is completed and the building up of a unit for each one of the fifty wards in the city and each of the county town districts will be begun.

At the same time the Densen group will resume its individual operations separately with the office of County Recorder Hans as headquarters. Fred Landin and Percy B. Coffin, with the patronage of the Lincoln park and West park systems as a basis, will be building up the local branch of the Small state machine. And William Hale Thompson, George F. Harding, Eugene Pike and William H. Reid will be opening up William Hale Thompson clubs.

Thompson Preparing Room.

With the exception of the Thompson activities, which are aimed toward the mayoralty primary of 1937, the first big goal of these operations is the county election two years hence. But all make allowances for the aldermanic election next spring and the bare chance that there will be a county committee election called at that time.

There is some discussion among the regulars about the possibility of joining with the Democrats in an effort to pass a bill for such an election early in the legislative session which opens in January and of passing it over the governor's veto if he exercises that power.

The question of filling the prospective vacancy on the board of assessors resulting from the election of William H. Weber to the board of review has been discussed by the regulars. As it is a county town matter, the selection probably will be left to the Weber-Busse-Hoffman organization. The board of reviews selects

AIR ROUTE

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service]

LISBON, Nov. 6.—A French company of aircraft operators proposes a government air route between Bordeaux, Madrid, and Lisbon. The promoters do not want a government subsidy, but demand exclusive rights for a postal and passenger concession for ten years. They stipulate the use of a limousine type of airplane of 300 horse power.

Weber's successor and he and Barrett constitute a majority of the board. Rumors that a member of Weber's family would be chosen have been denied emphatically.

Another G. O. P. Victory.

During the rush of election figures many lost track of the filling of the vacancy on the county board caused by the death of William H. MacLean. The county towns alone voted on this office. Almost complete returns showed Frank Kris [Rep.] had defeated Mrs. Jean P. Washburn [Dem.] by 96,017 to 23,003.

M'ELVAIN LAWYER DENIES HEARING FRAUD CHARGES

If James W. McElvain, a coal operator, was threatened with imprisonment and disgrace by Fred A. Burton, mine owner, and his attorney, Macley Hayne, he failed to tell the circumstance to his former lawyer, Arthur Roberts, the latter testified yesterday. Roberts told Superior Judge Denis E. Sullivan that McElvain appealed to him for advice when Burton requested McElvain to turn over his coal mine. "I told McElvain that if I were in the fix he was in I would sign the papers," Roberts said. "He said nothing of threats."

McElvain is suing for the return of his property, valued by him at over $700,000, which he claims was taken from him by Burton through false charges and threats.

CHARITIES WARN OFFAKERS ASKING ALMS OF PUBLIC

Victims of charity fraudsters are warned by Chicagoans by letters from officials of organized charities to issue warnings yesterday.

Recently a man who was soliciting funds was found to be an impostor. Three uniforms of recognized organizations were found in his possession.

The Associated Catholic Charities and the Jewish Charities of Chicago collect their funds through members of their own denominations. They do no door to door soliciting. Other large charitable organizations depend for the most part on the proceeds of tag days or benefits, and not on soliciting. While there are doubtless many smaller worthy charities deserving support, which use house to house canvassing, their agents always can produce credentials. A rule suggested by an officer of one of the large agencies is: "When in doubt, don't give."

SOVIETS HANG UP "KEEP OFF" SIGN ON ARCTIC ISLES

MOSCOW, Nov. 6.—[United News.]—Tchitcherin, soviet union foreign minister, has warned all foreign governments not to encroach upon the claims of the soviet union to islands in the Arctic sea, north of Siberia. A note has been dispatched reasserting the soviet union's rights to these islands and calls attention to a similar claim made by the Russian government in 1916 regarding possession of the Polar islands.

Recent alleged violations of soviet rights prompted the dispatch of the note. Further violations will be followed by demands for compensation from the governments responsible for the encroachments. Copies of the note were telegraphed directly to France and to the United States.

SOVIET OF THREE GOVERNS CHINA; JAPAN GLOOMY

Ejection of Emperor Angers the People.

BY CHARLES DAILEY.

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)
PEKING, Nov. 6.—The hope of a new government and the convening of a conference of leaders of all factions was dashed today by Wang Chen, premier of the cabinet as announced by the government. Wang Chen, who had been expected to resign, said it was the purpose of the government to continue the government until a conference under the auspices was held. This is not likely for at least two months.

It is taken to mean that, unless Wang Chen, who Dr. Wang said, was immediately proceeding to Peking, will carry out semi-soviet plans before the general reaction of the people crystallizes.

Demands by Monarchists.
The Chinese in all classes were shocked by the summary ejection of the emperor. The imperial palace to become a barracks for Gen. Feng's troops, with camel trains boldly entering the great south gate, never before opened except for state occasions. The monarchists in Peking and elsewhere announce their purpose of visiting Peking, demanding, not restoration, but the fulfillment of the promises made when the emperor abdicated.

Dr. Wang, officially expressing the government's views, read a prepared statement saying that Gen. Feng understood the highest responsibility possible to assume towards the country. "In obedience to the dictates of conscience we have driven a handful of corrupt persons from power. We have established a government pending a re-arrangement, with the advice and consent of the duly selected representatives of the people."

Repudiates Tuan Plan.
This part of the statement clearly repudiates the plan for Tuan Chi Jui, who Dr. Wang said, had been taken to elect delegates. He carefully sidestepped when asked if the bankers, chambers of commerce, or other than military and naval encouragement.

Due to interrupted communications it will require some days for the movement to crystallize, but it is clear only another military group has been led to Peking, and with strong military encouragement.

TRIBUTE PAID TO MRS. MINNIE BERLIN ON OFFICE BIRTHDAY

Congratulations, verbal and floral, were showered yesterday on Mrs. Minnie Berlin on the twenty-fifth anniversary of her service as a probation officer for the organized Jewish charities. Thousands of "first offenders" who had been paroled to Mrs. Berlin during those years added their congratulations to those of police captains, detective sergeants, municipal and criminal court judges, and many others.

former commander in chief of the central government army, arrived this afternoon at Lungchow, Shantung province, with a shipment of troops. The military authorities are preparing to send troops to disarm him.

It is rumored that the deposed chairman may come to Tsingtao counting on the loyalty of Admiral Wen Shou-Teh.

Three American destroyers and three Japanese warships are here. The Shantung military leaders have declared strict neutrality.

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 6.—Congress was denied the privilege of passing upon the Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, fuel oil storage base project because it was feared by naval officers that the plan would meet opposition. It was developed in federal court here today during the cross-examination of Rear Admiral J. K. Robison, former chief of the navy engineering bureau, at the trial of the government's suit for cancellation of oil leases and contracts which it is alleged the Pan-American Petroleum and Transport company obtained through fraud and collusion.

Asked by Owen J. Roberts, special government counsel, whether any projects other than the one at Pearl Harbor had been put in operation without the approval of congress, Rear Admiral Robison replied:

"None that I know of."

It was then developed through the presentation of documentary evidence that congressional opposition was feared in naval circles.

A large part of the afternoon session was consumed by disputes between counsel and between Roberts and Robison regarding previous testimony given by the admiral.

On many occasions opposing counsel clashed, the exchange of words precipitating laughter in the courtroom and making it necessary for the bailiff to call order.

Decide on Secrecy.
When questioned in regard to secrecy surrounding the making of the Pearl Harbor contracts and naval oil reserve leases, the admiral testified that the first suggestion of secrecy came when the project came up in connection with the reserves "and that through an agreement with Albert B. Fall, then secretary of the interior," it was decided "that no information be given out concerning our plans."

Roberts then questioned the witness as to conferences he had had with Fall and what part Fall played in the negotiations.

"Secretary Denby was the only important man to me in this matter. The rest were only tools," Robison replied.

"Did you inform Secretary Fall of Denby's offer to build the Pearl Harbor project for cost?"

"He was only one of my tools, too," was the reply.

TED MOORE AND JOEY O'HARA IN BATTLE TONIGHT

TRIBUNE DECISIONS

Decisions of Tribune boxing representatives are:

At Madison, Pa.—Bobby Burke beat Young Campbell (11) Jimmy McAllister knocked out Joe Brock (12).

At Cincinnati, O.—Henry Sparks stopped Bob Ramsey (4); Pat Daily knocked out Billy Cunningham (2); Tony Lawrence knocked out Chas. Egan (2).

At Atlantic City, N. J.—Jack Rothwell knocked out Eddie Mack (1).

Ted Moore, the clever English midweight, and Joey O'Hara of Fort Dodge, Ia., who is now making Chicago his home, will trade punches in the windup of the boxing show at East Chicago tonight. They will box ten rounds and scale 155 pounds at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

The Englishman, because of victories over some well known American fighters, has been made favorite over the local fighter. Moore has a tantalizing left hand which he uses to jab and hook, while he can cross his right for damaging results. He has a happy faculty of slipping over punches and generally manages to land one or two blows without return.

O'Hara Can Hit.

O'Hara can sock with his right hand and the local sharps believe Joe's only chance to win is to slip over the K. O. wallop early in the mill. Manager Jack O'Keefe claims O'Hara will be a far different fighter than he was when he met Tiger Johnny Kline at Aurora during the summer. Joe is in shape and has trained faithfully for a bout which will go a long way toward determining his future in the middleweight division.

In the eight round semi-windup, Jimmy Gory of the west side will meet Patsy Rocco of East Chicago. They will scale 150 pounds. Champ Rocco and Bobby Lee, local 115 pounders, will meet in one of the four round preliminaries while Charlie Raymond of France and Harold Plude, local 125 pounder, will be the principals in a six round fracas. A four rounder will complete the card.

625 Train to Fight.

A regular train will leave from the Randolph street terminal of the Illinois Central at 6:25 o'clock this evening and Promoter Mullany insists the main event will start at 10 o'clock sharp.

Handball Meet

ENTRIES DIVIDED INTO 2 CLASSES

Entries can be telephoned to Assistant Marshal Mike Corrigan at Central 6176. The entrance fee is $1, to pay for the balls used.

There will be two classes—A, for those who have had experience in tournaments and are considered first flight players, and class B, for novices and those of little experience in tournaments. The prize in each class will be a silver cup, donated by Charles V. Barrett. The hard ball will be used.

TIPS FOR ILLINOIS APIARISTS

QUESTIONNAIRES sent to Illinois beekeepers by J. R. Woodruff, secretary of the Illinois Beekeepers' association reveal some valuable information about the practices of the various apiarists throughout the state.

Summaries of the figures and notes taken from the reports show, for example, that 60 per cent of Illinois bees are run for comb and 40 per cent for extracted honey, averaging 30 pounds of comb and 70 pounds of extracted honey to the colony.

Apiarists' answers indicate that while clover for bees is losing its ground in this state, Mr. Woodruff says that by far the largest number of beekeepers give sweet clover first place as a honey producer; white clover comes second; heartsease third; alfalfa clover fourth, and Spanish needle fifth. Following these in the order named comes basswood, buckwheat, fruit bloom, dandelion, aster, etc.

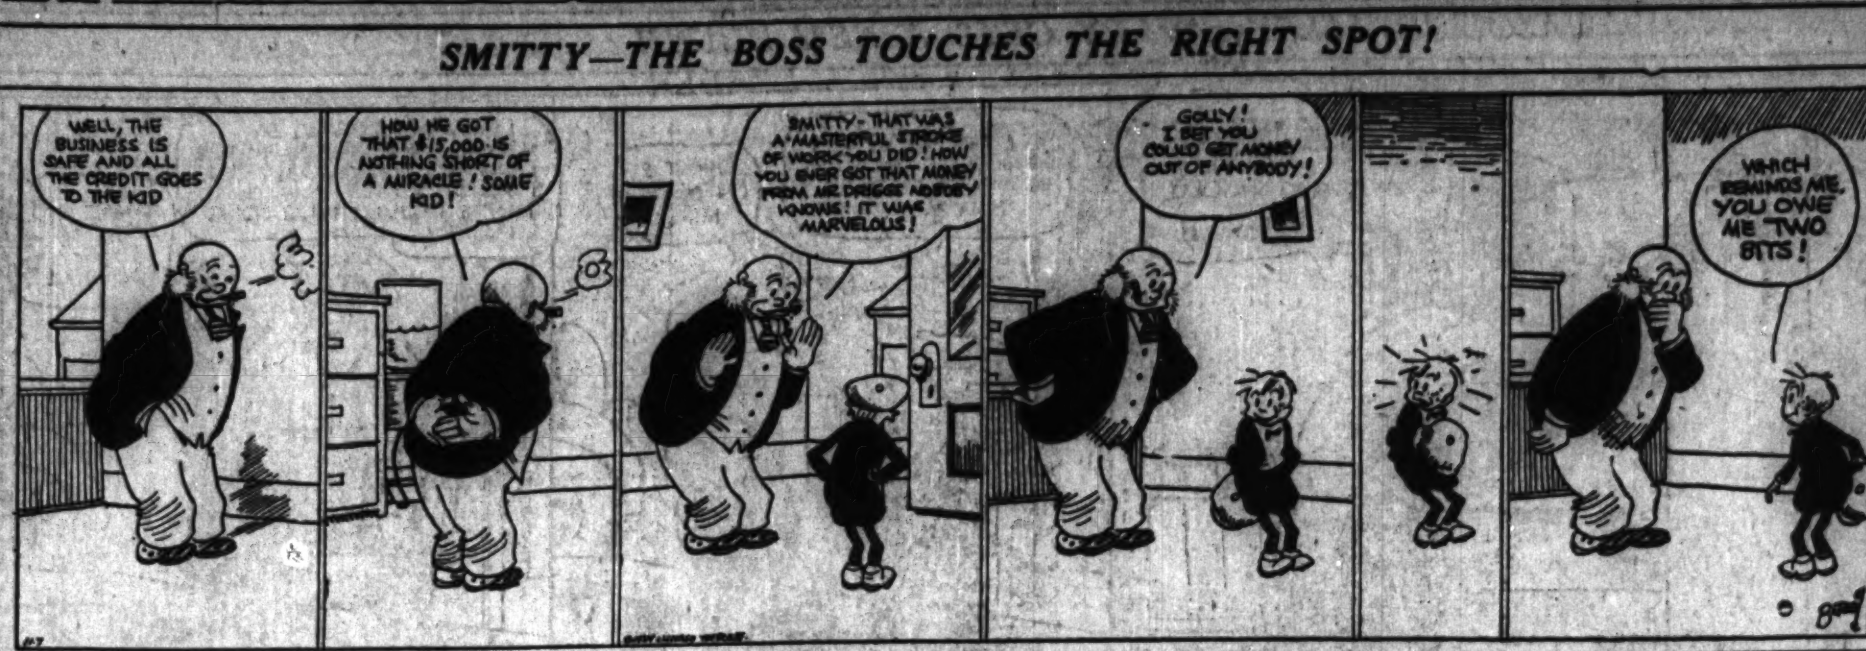

Seventy-five per cent of the beekeepers pack their hives in winter, and most of them use leaves. The questionnaire also shows how prevalent bee diseases are in the state; particularly American foul brood, which is prevalent in 28 per cent of the apiaries reported. However, the disease is being controlled.

JIM LONDOS MAY GET FLING AT 'STRANGLER'

As a result of his victory over Renato Gardini at the Coliseum Wednesday night, local promoters are planning on matching Jim Londos, doughty Greek champion, with Ed 'Strangler' Lewis for the world's heavyweight title.

Promoters Krone and Cutler are angling for the match on Thanksgiving day at the Coliseum and they have offered the champion a substantial guarantee. If they fail to land his match they are planning on matching Pat McGill with Mike Romano for a finish encounter.

Following the Krone-Cutler date, Promoters White and O'Neil will jump into the spotlight. They have a Coliseum date for Dec. 3 and are figuring on using Hans Steinknecht, the giant German, with one of the Zbyszko brothers.

This match is being made on request of German and Polish match fans who are at loggerheads as to whether Steinknecht is a better grappler than either of the Zbyszko brothers.

ROMANO MEETS NELSON ON SHOW CARD TONIGHT

Mike Romano, the Italian heavyweight champion who is seeking a bout with Ed 'Strangler' Lewis for the world's heavyweight championship, will take hold with Alex Nelson in the feature of the wrestling bouts at the Star and Garter tonight. Although Mike has tried on two occasions to wrest the crown from Lewis, he still remains in the local challenge and is looked upon as such by local promoters.

Pat McGill of Nebraska, who went down in defeat to Lewis last week, will meet Hansen Volkoff in the co-main event. Although defeated McGill maintains he is good enough to beat most of the challengers for the world's title. Winners of the bouts will be headliners in larger mat shows to be held during the winter.

EARL SANDE IS OUT OF HOSPITAL

New York, Nov. 6.—Earl Sande, premier American boxer, who was injured on the track at Saratoga in August, left the Roosevelt hospital today. Although his injured leg was still in splints and he walked with a cane, Sande said he would be able to ride again.

BEST LAID PLANS

WO'NT HURT GRANGE

THE Chicago players are not going to arch their bodies to save Red Grange from harm," Coach A. A. Stagg told Midway alumni at the annual football dinner of the University of Chicago last night. "But," he added, "Illinois and Illinois alumni may be assured that no member of our team will intentionally try to injure Grange."

Whether Chicago wins or loses is largely a matter of the intensity with which the Maroons are keyed up for the game tomorrow, according to the speakers at the banquet. "I can select eleven men with the proper determination and inspiration, we're going to make a good showing," Stagg asserted—and that's about as definitely as he ever predicts a result.

MOON MULLINS—TINPANT'S CHEER LEADER

FOOTBALL CAMPS

OHIO STATE.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 6.—(Special.)—Yesterday's and today's grid practices at Ohio State were as directly opposite as are the participants in the mythical hare and tortoise race. Yesterday Coach Wilce drove his team with speed and recklessness. Today he did just the opposite, sending them through a workout more characteristic of the tortoise, but the tortoise, so the fable goes, won out against the hare, and Wilce believes today's practice will be just as beneficial as yesterday's period. A light defensive drill against Indiana passes executed by a scrub eleven was the extent of the Buckeyes' physical labor.

WISCONSIN.

MADISON, Wis., Nov. 6.—(Special.)—Giving Steve Polasek, first string end, twenty-four more hours to be fully back in shape, the University of Wisconsin varsity will be in the best all-around physical condition it has enjoyed this season, according to Trainer George Berg. Coach Ryan sent his men through a light workout today, but the final real workout before the Notre Dame game Saturday, Ryan will put the team through a drill at Camp Randall tomorrow afternoon.

PURDUE.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Nov. 6.—(Special.)—The Purdue varsity was sent through a light workout today with the yearling team this afternoon to complete the drill for the day's game against De Pauw here Saturday. With the exception of Capt. Claypool and a few others, all first string players will be able to play. Purdue's probable lineup will be: Horan and Pihlman, end; Rolan and Wolman, tackle; DeBorhouse and Spencer, guards; Threlfall, center; Canbe, quarter back; Daly and Bahr, half backs; Worth, full back.

ALBION.

ALBION, Mich., Nov. 6.—(Special.)—With its lineup established for the first time this fall, the Albion college squad is just getting into the groove for the game with Alma college, 1923 champions, at the Presbyterians field Saturday. The two eleven, usually contenders for state honors, are this year out of the running, both teams having been humiliated in the game with the Maroons. Albion is given an even chance to cop from this upstart.

OLD MAN FOOTBALL CELEBRATES HIS 55TH NATAL ANNIVERSARY

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—Intercollegiate football today celebrated its fifty-fifth anniversary of its birth. The gridiron game in America had its inception in a contest between teams representing Rutgers and Princeton on Nov. 6, 1869.

The game at that time resembled rugby more than the present style of play. Princeton, Elgers and Yale drafted a set of rules in 1873 modeled upon the "association" code, and in 1875 Yale, Princeton, Harvard, and Columbia formulated a modified rugby code, which formed the real basis of the modern game.

MAROON-ILLINI TICKETS COME HIGH THESE DAYS

All kinds of prices were offered in Chicago yesterday and last night for tickets to the Chicago-Illinois game at Stagg field tomorrow. Hundreds of gridiron fans, arriving during the day without tickets, were willing to pay almost any price, but, as far as Tim Tammey could learn, very few of the previous "dunces" have reached the hands of scalpers.

One student is said to have offered two tickets for sale for $130. Another wanted $100 for the pair allotted him, and a few others were reported available at the same outlandish prices.

Frequent offers were heard in downtown ticket agencies of $50 for two tickets, and in some instances an even higher offer was made.

The clerk at one agency last night was of the opinion that he would be offered more than $100 a ticket today dozens of times, and that the demand for tickets indicated the game might draw 100,000 people if there was room at Stagg field for that number.

BRITTEN TO ASK WEEKS FOR ARMY TILT TODAY

(BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.)

Washington, D. C., Nov. 6.—(Special.)—Hope of bringing the Army and Navy game to Chicago next fall was materially strengthened today when Representative Fred A. Britten (Rep., Ill.) arrived here for a conference with Secretary of War Weeks relative to this question.

Congressman Britten will lay two proposals before Secretary Weeks in the morning. He will ask that the principal feature of the dictionary program for Chicago's new Grant park stadium and that the airplane Chicago which encircled the globe be placed in the Field museum as a perpetual historical exhibit. In both requests Congressman Britten will have the full support of Representative Martin B. Madden (Rep., Ill.), as well as of army and navy officers of high rank.

IOWA.

IOWA CITY, Ia., Nov. 6.—(Special.)—General disruption of the Iowa line has been brought about by a string of accidents that will force Coach Hurt to make a change in his lineup for Saturday. The latest loss is Griffin, 233 pound center, who broke a bone in his back during scrimmages and is lost for the next two weeks, if not for the remainder of the season. Hines, a half back, is among those who have been mentioned for the job. McIntyre, the Iowa star, who has been mentioned for the job, will be substituted for Griffin at center, who is lost from a cracked shoulder.

MINNESOTA.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Nov. 6.—(Special.)—If the coaches by any chance jibe up a non-forcible lead on Ames in the early periods Saturday, Bill Sponseller will use many of his reserves to save the regulars for the Illinois game. Today Liddner, Abramson, Gay and Wheeler spent most of the serious scrimmage against the freshmen on the side lines. The yearlings tried out the Iowa Farmer aerial attack against the varsity and had considerable success. Louis drove around today with a bad cold and did not get into practice. Liddner is having trouble with an injured leg and is being served as much as possible.

ILLINOIS.

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Nov. 6.—(Special.)—Bob Zupke applied the final polish to the Illinois team and they will enter for Chicago tomorrow morning. Today's practice was a dummy scrimmage entirely, with the Orange and Blue players studying the Maroon formations. DeBolt that Harry Hatt will be able to pilot the Illinois is expressed, although the quarter back was in his place today. Willie McVain's hand will have to be incased in bandages and this will affect the handling of the ball. Gardner Muhl undoubtedly will appear for half the game. Ray Gallivan will undertake both Grange and Hartz Hall.

INDIANA.

BLOOMINGTON, Ind., Nov. 6.—(Special.)—With a squad of thirty-two players in addition to trainers and coaches, the Indiana football contingent departed tonight for Columbus, where the Hoosier team will meet Ohio State Saturday. Coach Hargan's men will have a drill on the Buckeye field tomorrow afternoon. With Marks on the side line on account of an injury, the varsity ran signals for more than an hour in the field practice. Tobin, captain of the Illinois crew last season, was inserted in the lineup in place of the injured Marks. The Hoosiers displayed with the young eleven last year.

ARROWS PLAY SUNDAY.

The Westview Arrows, who have seven seven straight games this season, Sunday will test their strength with their former foe, the Chicago team. The game was held at Palmer Park.

Purple Gridders Off Today for Clash with Wolverines

Coach Thielthwaite and his hopeful Northwestern university warriors will entrain for Ann Arbor, Mich., this morning, where Coach "Hurricane" Yost's Wolverines will be met Saturday. A full squad, injured men and all, will make up the party.

The Evanston contingent will leave at 10 o'clock and go directly to Jackson, Mich., for an unlimbering drill in the afternoon. The players will get their full rest in that town and then move over to Ann Arbor the morning of the game.

Many Hoosier Follow Team.

With a special train scheduled to carry alumni, undergraduates and other followers, the Purple gridders will not lack support. The special will pull out of the 12th street depot at 6 a. m. tomorrow morning. Many N. U. adherents will also make the trip to the Wolverine stronghold in automobiles.

It will not be the strongest Purple team of the season that clashes with the Yost men. Barney Mathews, clever and, is already counted out. He came out of the Indiana game with a twisted knee and has not been able to get into togs since. Fred Bruce is also not likely to start, being troubled with injuries.

Sidelined Back With Team.

Wally Sidel, who has been out with an attack of the flu, showed up for practice yesterday, getting into his uniform and taking part in the drill. He did not extend himself, since his sickness left him in a weakened condition. Coach Thielthwaite plans to start him, which makes the end situation considerably brighter.

Red Cole will undoubtedly start at right end, Mathews' position. Hathaway and Leimert have also been prepared for the place. Siebermann will fill Bruce's shoes, while Ford is the likely starter at right guard, the position made open by the injuries to Cohen and Kelly.

WOLVES SPEED UP.

Ann Arbor, Mich., Nov. 6.—(Special.)—Coach Yost drove the Wolverines hard today in perfecting a defense that will stop Northwestern in general and Ralph Baker in particular. At the same time a new style of offense was developed for use against the Purple. A number of formations, brand new in the Michigan repertoire, had to be worked out for the tilt on Saturday. Inasmuch as Uteritz and Dunne, former Wolverine stars, are now assisting Coach Thielthwaite and are thoroughly familiar with past Yost strategy. This afternoon the new plays were rehearsed, and "Hurricane" seemed pleased with their prospects.

MIDWEST GRID CLASH.

The winner of the Le Verne Arrow-Ambrose football game at Newen's park Sunday afternoon is expected to reach the State in the midwestern division of the Midwest league. Both clubs are represented by scrappy eleven.

DE PAUL TEAM MEETS NORBERTS TOMORROW

De Paul university's crack eleven will clash with powerful St. Norbert team tomorrow in the annual homecoming. The Wisconsin team boasts decisive victories over Ripon, Wisconsin Mines, and St. John's, and the Red and Blue warriors know that they will have their hands full when they try to repel the husky Green Bay outfit.

The De Paul eleven is in good spirits, but has been training hard all week to prevent the Saints from stopping their winning streak. The visitors boast a speedy, smooth working team which has mastered the aerial style of attack to a remarkable degree, and in anticipation of this style of offense Coach Harry Adams has been drilling his proteges hard all week.

Red-White-Blue Club Directors Guests of Mrs. Jos. G. Coleman

BY PANDORA.

Three things added distinction to a luncheon given yesterday by Mrs. Joseph G. Coleman at her Rush street home. First, the fact that she is one of the most skilled and delightful of Chicago hostesses; second, that the chef d'œuvre of the day, a beautiful dish of beans, ham, and green peppers, was specially prepared for the occasion by Mrs. Robert J. Dunham, one of whose menu specialties it is; and, third, that it was a meeting of the energetic committee in charge of the Red, White and Blue club, at which were mapped out campaign plans for the coming winter.

The Red, White and Blue club, as perhaps most of our readers know, is situated at 1238 West street, in a story building, notable for its cleanliness, where the neighborhood children, some 800 of them, may find recreation and instruction in useful arts not offered them at home or by the more or less doubtful charms of the streets. Mrs. Sophie Edelstadt is house mother of this large brood, and with no rigid rules or regulations to hamper them, the children, ranging in age from 2 to 13 years, are sure of a wholesome welcome and occupation, either work or play, all during the day and evening.

Last year the proceeds of the club's benefit performance of the Follies netted between $15,000 and $18,000, which is, if I am not mistaken, the largest amount ever made here by a single benefit entertainment. The sum was applied to pay off the mortgage on the club property, which is now its very own.

This year, instead of a large and exhausting benefit program, the committee, headed by Mrs. Coleman, and whose vice president is Mrs. Leeds Mitchell, plans to launch a drive for a house campaign for funds, which will be used to cover the running expenses. Among those present at the luncheon yesterday, in addition to Mrs. Mitchell and Mrs. Dunham, were Mrs. F. C. Letta, last year's vice president; Mrs. W. R. Odell, Mrs. Morris L. Johnston, Mrs. Orville Babcock, Mrs. E. S. Beck, Mrs. Howard Billeter, Mrs. Warren Rippe, Mrs. Caroline Kirkland, Mrs. Wallace Kirk, Mrs. John F. Jelle Jr., Mrs. W. A. Yager, Mrs. E. R. Pfeiffer, Mrs. Joseph Fish, and Mrs. William Fitzman.

Day's News in Society

Trim nurses, blue clad and capped and aproned in stiff white, mingling with society folk in silks and velvets kept in mind the charitable purpose of the ball given to support the Bryn Mawr hospital at the Congress hotel. Mitchell Jr., who wore a black velvet gown; Miss Anna Blair, clad in shimmering white; Mrs. John W. Carey in a headed shifon; and Mrs. William H. Bunch, also in black velvet. Mrs. Bunch's gown was of silver lace over black and she wore a small bouquet of red flowers on her shoulder. A group of debutantes and nurses, under the direction of Mrs. Thornehill Brown, circulated among the guests, contained in white silk and silver spangled Turkish costumes, selling cigarettes and cigars. A program given by members of the musical comedies now in Chicago, and supper were events of the late evening.

Tickets are now on sale for the Ell Bates benefit performance of the Music Box revue which is to open at the Illinois theater on Monday evening, Dec. 22. Mrs. Lawrence Viles is in charge of preparations for the performance. Mrs. James L. Houghtaling, Jr. of 1208 Astor street is chairman of the ticket committee, which consists of twenty-nine Chicago women and several committees for the suburbs. Mrs. Augustus Eddy will have charge of the sale in Evanston, Mrs. W. France Anderson in Hinsdale, Mrs. George A. Mason in Highland Park, Mrs. William B. Hale in Winnetka, and Mrs. Laurence B. Miss Harriet McLaughlin, chairman of the executive committee, is to be at the microphone. Mrs. Knowlton L. Ames Jr. is managing the ticket sales.

Miss Linn is a niece of Mrs. William R. Linn.

Mrs. William McCormick Blair of 1816 Astor street has departed for the east, where she will attend some of the college football games.

Miss Marjorie Garland of Saco, Me., will arrive in Chicago today to be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Russell J. Mattinas of the Lincoln Park West until the middle of next week.

Pastor Day Plans to Be Perfected at Luncheon

Prairie Club Hike.

The Prairie club hike for tomorrow afternoon will be from Woodlawn to Elmhurst. The club will leave the Union station (north end) over the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad at 123 p. m. Length of walk will be seven miles and the expense 55 cents. Leaders will be Miss Jeanette C. Dyer, Miss Florence Hawley, Miss Leona Osterman; committee representative, Carl L. De Pae.

A few minutes later Sonny came into the room where I was, and one look at his face told the story.

Debutantes to Make Their Stage Bows in Service Club's Play

Although meeting mother's friends and being "seen" officially for the first time is a hard enough test on the poise of the debutante, her first experience of dancing and parading behind the footlights is rather a crucial affair. The Service club musical comedy, "Cynthia," to be given at the Eighth Street theater this evening, will afford the fashionable audience that is expected to attend an opportunity to view the charms and graces of the buds as well as some of the more experienced amateurs. Mrs. Albert Potter, a newcomer in Chicago's younger set, is to play the title rôle, and Miss Roberta Thorne, Miss Daisiana Smith, and Miss Josephine Dunham are to have leading parts.

Among the young men whose services have been procured are Louis E. Laffin, Edward Murphy, Frank Luther, Edward Elow, and Raymond Olson. Specialty acts are to be featured, Mrs. Darrell B. Fulton, who has a long established reputation, is to dance a solo, and Miss Edna Shepard, one of the buds, who has a name for being an expert clooper, will demonstrate her ability. Miss Elizabeth Beidler, who performed in last year's Junior League Follies, is to be on the program with a dance and several other numbers. The annual dinner and election of officers of the Chicago Alpha alumni chapter of Beta Theta Pi will be held this evening at the Algonquin club.

Mrs. Charles S. Clark, president of the conference of club presidents and program chairman, will speak before the Martha Washington Women's club this afternoon at the new headquarters of the club at 1440 East 66th place.

The Keystone of the biggest advertising campaign in North Central States

THE Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is spending $3,000,000 this year for advertising in the states where it operates—Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Missouri, Kansas, North Dakota, South Dakota.

No other business organization in existence spends as much for advertising in this section. Not one has had an equal opportunity to study the value of advertising mediums in these states—or so imperative a reason for determining the facts.

Seven hundred thousand dollars has been appropriated to advertise Polarine Motor Oil, alone.

Five hundred and sixty-five leading newspapers in ten states carry large copy. Twenty-eight farm journals have schedules of six pages. Outdoor posters appear on 2,300 stands in 700 towns. Booklets, circulars and letters are being mailed. Porcelain enamel signs identify Polarine dealers.

Tribune Color Pages Are the Dominating Strength of the Entire Campaign

The keystone that strengthens all the separate units of this huge program and binds them into one powerful structure, is a schedule of 13 full-page advertisements in four colors in the Picture Section of The Chicago Sunday Tribune.

Every Polarine salesman takes full advantage of the dominating influence of The Chicago Sunday Tribune throughout Zone 7. He carries an advertising portfolio that gives its impressive circulation in each of the 48 districts of Chicago, in each county of Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Michigan and Wisconsin, and in 1,064 towns of these states where one family in five are Tribune readers.

No matter where the Polarine salesman calls, he gives exact circulation figures for that county, town or Chicago district. He doesn't need to rely on circulation of national scope and vague local influence.

Sunday Tribune's Impressive Circulation Aids Selling Throughout Zone 7

In towns where billboards or local newspapers are used, he has the added weight of powerful Tribune page advertisements in four colors, reaching a representative number of car-owning families.

In towns without other advertising, The Chicago Sunday Tribune circulation alone carries conviction. In the 502 leading towns in Zone 7, The Sunday Tribune reaches three times as many families as the largest national weekly magazine.

This schedule of color advertising is in addition to 12,800 lines of black and white Polarine advertising, approximately 32,000 lines of Red Crown Gasoline advertising and 32,000 lines of institutional advertising which the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is also placing in The Chicago Tribune in 1924.

No publication has ever received a greater testimonial from a company so well qualified to speak with authority!

Most advertisers attempt to blanket the entire United States with an appropriation much smaller than the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) spent in 1923 in the five states of The Chicago Territory. Yet with unequalled advertising experience behind their judgment, they added to their appropriation this year in the same territory.

Could there be more definite evidence that no manufacturer has yet plumbed the sales possibilities of this rich area? No one, to date, has found how much money can be profitably spent within the limits of these five great states.

Such a market deserves more consideration than mere inclusion in a national sales and advertising program. No other zone equals its possibilities.

To be content with scattered distribution and thin advertising coverage in The Chicago Territory is like gleaning a sheaf here and there in a rich field of wheat instead of using a harvesting machine.

Get the Facts Before You Make Your 1925 Sales and Advertising Plans

Can America's foremost market, The Chicago Territory, and its dominating medium, The Chicago Tribune, help make 1925 more profitable for you?

Find out. Ask a Tribune man to call. He has some startling facts to put before you—not dry statistics but live stories of phenomenal growth in distribution, sales and profit that started with asking a Tribune man to call.

The Chicago Tribune

• THE • WORLD'S • GREATEST • NEWSPAPER •

Zone 7 ranks first among American markets, leading all other zones in population, number of income tax returns, motor vehicles, crop wealth and manufactured products. Yet it is compact, covering but 8.7% of the country's total area.

In 1,064 towns of these rich five states The Chicago Tribune is read by an average of 60% of all the families. Ask for the BOOK OF FACTS, on your business stationery. It tells how you can capture this market. No obligation on your part.

LABOR MARKET REPORTS SPURT AFTER ELECTION

BY SCRUTATOR.

A frisk of this column, who operates in Chicago's "man market," and whose information about labor conditions for the last several months has proved his intelligence and good judgment, while his general comment has betrayed the fact that he also has a heart and thinks of his "wages" in human terms, called up yesterday afternoon.

"That election was real good," he said. "Here are my orders received before noon—six machinists at $5 cents per hour, six assemblers, three die makers, two crane operators, two foundry repair men. Yes, they're lighting the fires."

Just by way of introducing a little "bull" to the railroad and other labor market, he said: "The existing railroad plant in the United States, like our arable land, has been an ever increasing population, and it is not probable that we will see many miles of line constructed."

There are 447 persons in the United States today for every mile of railroad. Ten years ago there were less than 400.

While the recent actual decrease in miles of line has been noted often and duly deplored, we have quite generally overlooked the increase in miles of track.

In thirty-five years our miles of railway line increased from about 16,000 to 22,000. In the same period, however, miles of second track increased from 1,000 to 10,000, which took away from 16,000 to 12,000.

We are a long way from the condition of the British roads, where there is much less single track double track. Obviously we will never duplicate their general density of traffic.

But the growth of extra tracks shows what is happening to the roads as well as on other figures.

Consolidation of the systems will here and there give the facilities of double tracks without new construction. One of the few things done under the McAdoo regime, which it would have been better to have perpetuated, was a number of such arrangements. But the roads are now coming to this joint use of parallel lines themselves.
